ADMINISTRATORS

our coaches . . .

As each academic year reaches its fulfillment, a number of young men and women approach the close of their public school career. This graduation occurs throughout the nation, but each school considers its own class as a vital part of itself. We are one of those schools.

We have watched each of you grow from a child; we have shared many of your joys and your sorrows; we have seen you increase in wisdom, in stature and in favor with God and man We see you now at the threshhold of mature manhood and womanhood, and we rejoice with you upon your attainments.

You are leaving the physical buildings which you have called your Alma Mater; and you bequeath to those who follow you, those aspects of schools which you and they see tangibly as edifices of brick and stone. You take with you-in deed you cannot leave behind, try as hard

... build us into a well coordinated team

as you will-your true Alma Mater, your "Other Mother," of your childhood and youth training and ideals which you have secured within those walls.

The world in which you have lived and which you face has been and is at present a tumultuous and confused home of humanity. Our efforts have been devoted toward enabling you better to face those tasks confronting you; and in humility we pray that in conjunction with your church and your home, we may have been in some way successful.

The 1952 Westvian is not merely another book. It is a living, vital record to you and to us, to be read and reread, and to be a reminder of those whose acquaintance and friendship have brought light and happiness into our lives. As we greet you from this page you take with you our best wishes for success and happiness. To each of you, we wish Godspeed.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

One of our most important civic groups, the Board of Education, is chosen by the citizens of the school district. They have proven capable of supervising school matters; and to them falls the task of passing final approval on all plans concerning the school. They have many and varied problems. They must, among other things, secure maintenance for the ten buildings in the North Hills Joint School system; prepare a budget; plan any additions to old buildings, or entirely new ones, where populations are increasing at a rapid rate; hire all personnel, such as teachers, secretaries and others. The School Board has many plans for the high school. Among them is the addition of a new wing to the high school building. It would provide a new gymnasium, new music and shop rooms, and science rooms. The Joint and shop rooms, and science rooms. The Joint Board, a civic group of which our school and Board, a civic group of which our school and community can be proud, is held in high esteem by students and citizens alike, for a year's job well done.

SENIOR EXECUTIVE COUNCIL  calls the right plays

Who made our Senior class so successful? Of course, our hard working Senior Executive Council! Under the supervision of Mrs. Zeiler and Mr. Martorelli the Senior Executive Council planned many activities and special events that made our last year in high school a pleasant memory.

The members of the council were president, Harry Pople; vice president, Bob Taylor; secretary, Libby Phelps; treasurer, Janet Moore - and the homeroom representatives. These capable people managed the business of the senior class and tried to please every class member.

The "Hobo House" was planned by the Executive Council. It was held at the North Park Lodge. A square dance highlighted the evening and the traditional play was put on by the "Green Jacket Boys."

Besides planning the successful activities, the council made the necessary arrangements for the Dinner Dance which was held in March, the senior class play, and the class day activities. They also ordered the graduation announcements and name cards.

Each senior homeroom was posted on the class events by their representatives, who also collected the class dues.

The Senior class can be proud of the excellent job that their council and sponsors did They graduated from West View with many delightful memories.

STUDENT COUNCIL

makes the rules

A Student Council is the backbone of school. It can be either weak or strong. Here at West View we are proud to say that our Student Council is one of the strongest types of student government existing.

Student Council plays a very important part in our students school life. It gives them a chance to express their likes, dislikes, and feelings toward the rules governing the school The main purposes of Student Council are to plan all the assemblies, compose the studen handbook, develop a good school spirit among students, and govern the student body

One of the many achievements that StuOne of the many achievements that Stu mendable record made in the magazine campaign. Selling $$ 4,300$ worth of subscriptions by urging the students to raise that amount of money, the school was able to finance many worthy projects and have more and better as semblies.

Student Council consists of eight cabinet officers and as many representatives as there are homerooms. Bob McCartney was our capable president who presided over the meetings and assemblies.

The council meets regularly every Monday during activity period. Any additional meetings are held if necessary or in case of an emergency. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Metz the council carried out many of its plans and achieved many of its goals during the year.

The students of West View look to our Student Council with great esteem and respect We realize that it is an outstanding governing body. With that thought in mind we have grea desires to improve and better the schoo through our Student Council.

WESTVIAN STAFF

Good Better Best

Never let it rest
Till the good is better
And better; is best

This was the motto of the 1952 Westvian staff. Their dream was to turn out the best yearbook that had ever been introduced into West View High School.

All during the past summer the editors of the different staffs met with Carole Kennedy the Editor-in-Chief. First, a theme had to be chosen. This problem was solved, when they decided to pattern the yearbook after a foot ball game. This was a rather difficult task, but with hard work and untiring effort, they planned the yearbook down to the smallest detail so that when school started they would be all set to go.

The first job the members had, was to secure patrons. They helped to pay for more than half of the expense. After two weeks of hard work, Harry Pople and Don Winner, the Business Managers, announced that we had topped our goal. The Westvian staff sold programs at all our home football games. These and other projects helped to finance the yearbook.

The Literary Staff, under the supervi sion of Nancy Jones, spent many hours writing about the favorites of all the seniors. They worked many days after school proof-reading each write-up. It would be a big disappoint ment to Nancy and her diligent staff if a sen ior wasn't pleased with his write-up

A familiar sight around West View High all year was Janet Moore, the Photography editor, and Mr. Eckert from Strem Studios. Pictures had to be taken of every club and activity without confusion. Say "cheese" and "watch the birdie" were heard by nearly every student.

The Activities Staff, headed by Marianne Atwell, made many new friends by identifying the pictures of all the clubs. The members of this staff also had to obtain all the information about the different activities and write it into interesting write-ups.

Ann Herndon and her Art Staff created the clever drawings that you see throughou this yearbook. Without these attractive eyecatchers the yearbook would be dull and uninteresting. Without Ann and her staff, the yearbook would not have been the same.

A fairly new section of the yearbook was the Features. This staff was headed by Joan Hartstein. There you will find pictures and write-ups about the senior activities, the May Day Festival, the Class Plays, the Senior Dinner Dance, our Junior Prom, and other featur ed things in the school.

Sports were a big thing at West View. Roy Williams and his Sports Staff did our teams honor in their write-ups. They spent many hours collecting the information and writing about each sport event, also, they had the difficult duty of keeping the scores of the games straight, so they would be accurate in the Westvian.

Ila Windle and her Typing Staff were kept busy typing every write-up and activity in the yearbook. They deserve a lot of praise for their conscientious work.

It was Carole Kennedy's job, as Editor in-Chief, to see that the right pictures, writeups, and identifications were sent to the print ers at the right time, proof-read and complete.

rist row - J. Harseon, M. Atweli, N. Jones
Second row - H. Fople, I. Wincle, J. Moore, A. Herndon, Mr. Herman, Mr. Puchta
Third row - D. Winner, C. Kennedy

Carole also had to assemble a "Dummy" to uide the printer in his huge task.

The Yearbook sponsors one of the largest activities in West View High School. It is the May Festival. Early in the year, the Senior class nominated seven girls, from which four were voted to the honor of being the four graces. At the May Festival, the May Queen was crowned and a court, composed of thirty of the highest patron-sellers and their escorts, performed for the queen. It was Joan Hartstein, the May Day chairman, who kept the performance running smoothly. She planned and arranged the whole program, keeping track of approximately sixty people and seeing that each one of them did the proper thing. Also there to guide and advise Joan, were Miss Rucker and Mr. Herman. Many thanks to all who helped to make this May Festival another uccessful accomplishment of the Westvian Staff.

At the end of each school term, it has been he policy in past years of the Yearbook to hold a picnic at North Park for its staff to climax a year's work well done. There is a rivalry between the business and editorial staffs as to the more competent ball players which has to be settled each year at this gath ring. There is always food and fun for all.

Under the guidance of our sponsors, Mr. Herman and Mr. Puchta, the Westvian Staff has turned out a yearbook of which every stu dent can be proud. In the years to come as we eaf through the pages of the 1952 Westvian, we shall be able to recall again and again the many fond memories of our high school days.

WESTVIAN STAFF

Good Better BestNever let it restTill the good is betterAnd better; is best.

This was the motto of the 1952 Westvian staff. Their dream was to turn out the best yearbook that had ever been introduced into West View High School.

All during the past summer the editors of the different staffs met with Carole Kennedy, the different staffs met with Carole Kennedy, the Editor-in-Chief. First, a theme had to be chosen. This problem was solved, when they decided to pattern the yearbook after a football game. This was a rather difficult task, but with hard work and untiring effort, they planned the yearbook down to the smallest detail so that when school started they would be all set to go.

The first job the members had, was to secure patrons. They helped to pay for more than half of the expense. After two weeks of hard work, Harry Pople and Don Winner, the Busiwork, Harry Pople and Don Winner, the Busiour goal. The Westvian staff sold programs at all our home football games. These and other projects helped to finance the yearbook.

The Literary Staff, under the supervision of Nancy Jones, spent many hours writing about the favorites of all the seniors. They worked many days after school proof-reading each write-up. It would be a big disappoint ment to Nancy and her diligent staff if a sen ior wasn't pleased with his write-up

A familiar sight around West View High all year was Janet Moore, the Photography edi tor, and Mr. Eckert from Strem Studios. Pic tures had to be taken of every club and activity without confusion. Say "cheese" and "watch the birdie" were heard by nearly every student.

The Activities Staff, headed by Marianne Atwell, made many new friends by identifying the pictures of all the clubs. The members of the pas staff also had to obtain all the informa tion about the different activities and write it into interesting write-ups.

Ann Herndon and her Art Staff created the clever drawings that you see throughout this yearbook. Without these attractive eyecatchers the yearbook would be dull and uninteresting. Without Ann and her staff, the year book would not have been the same.

A fairly new section of the yearbook was the Features. This staff was headed by Joan Hartstein. There you will find pictures and write-ups about the senior activities, the May Day Festival, the Class Plays, the Senior Dinner Dance, our Junior Prom, and other featured things in the school.

Sports were a big thing at West View. Roy Williams and his Sports Staff did our teams honor in their write-ups. They spent many hours collecting the information and writing about each sport event, also, they had the difficult duty of keeping the scores of the games straight, so they would be accurate in the Westvian.

Ila Windle and her Typing Staff were kept busy typing every write-up and activity in the yearbook. They deserve a lot of praise for their conscientious work.

Carole also had to assemble a "Dummy" to guide the printer in his huge task.

The Yearbook sponsors one of the largest activities in West View High School. It is the May Festival. Early in the year, the Senior class nominated seven girls, from which four were voted to the honor of being the four graces. At the May Festival, the May Queen was crowned and a court, composed of thirty of the highest patron-sellers and their escorts, performed for the queen. It was Joan Hartstein, the May Day chairman, who kept the performance running smoothly. She planned and arranged the whole program, keeping track of approximately sixty people and seeing that each one of them did the proper thing. Also there to guide and advise Joan, were Miss Rucker and Mr. Herman. Many thanks to all who helped to make this May Festival another successful accomplishment of the Westvian Staff

At the end of each school term, it has been the policy in past years of the Yearbook to hold a picnic at North Park for its staff to climax a year's work well done. ## WEST WIND

scores the tallies

"Is this the West Wind?" "Why it’s so different!" "Isn't the new West Wind just out of this world?"

West View's school newspaper had certainly changed its appearance. The column titles and silhouettes were all based on our mascot, the Indian. Feathery Fin ery gave us the latest in fashions, Tribal Twosomes kept us posted on the new flames, Indian Chants was the first item read by loyal band members, and Teepee

That wasn't given the sports section West Wind was published once every three weeks instead of monthly. The print was weeks instead Many more pictures also appeared in the paper. All these changes were led by our competent Editor-in-Chief Carol Gallwits and her assistant Lynn Jones. To help them along the tough spots were Connie Bees and Anna May Koerbel, the News Editors; Elaine Blind and Lois Smith, Features Editors; Roy Williams, Sports Editor; Lois Elliott, Circulation Editor; Mary Heim, Business Editor; Marian Smola, Typing Editor; Ruth Schodde, Photography Editor; and Denny Murphey, Art Editor. Miss Delp, the Literary Sponsor and Miss Rucker, the Business Sponsor did an outstanding job.

The last page of the West Wind was devoted to the Junior Hioh School It was called the West Zephyr. Through this medium, the eighth and ninth graders were posted on the current fashions, romances and sports. The editors on this part of the paper were Jane Harris and Sonya Mugnani. Their sponsor was Mrs. Zeiler.

SPEECH CLUB  play by play description

No matter how low our fortunes droop, fair skies always seem to prevail when our Speech Club is in action. Of whense, this isn't all a mere matter of chance. The members of the Speech Club have learned that even the most gifted orators must work and practice diligently. However, the club's sponsors, Miss Morris and Mr. Metz, seem to know how to make this a pleasant chore, for each year many new members swell the ranks of the organization, one of W

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

cops more trophies

Leading the many activities at West View is the National Forensic League The members have continually brought fame and honor to our high school by coming out on top in many contests. Mr. Metz and Miss Morris deserve a lot of credit for guiding the students to victory. Miss Morris is District Chairman of speech contests.

The leaders of National Forensic League are Carl Hanks, president; Harry Pople, vice-president; and Bill Wright, treasurer.

To become a member of the National Forensic League a student must have twenty points in any type of speech work. After becoming a member there are four degrees which can be earned; the Degree of Merit, the Degree of Honor, the Degree of Excellence, and the Degree of Distinction.

Art Tritsch, one of the outstanding members, was elected Speaker of the Washington House at the Ambridge Student Congress. Carl Hanks, another very talented member, was elected Speaker of the House at the Charleroi Student Congress. Both these boys won second place in the election for the State Congress. Bill Wright placed in the finals in the District Tournament at Sacred Heart.

The student body at West View is proud of these boys and the many other members who make our school a leader among the surrounding schools in speech work. Hats off to our National Forensic League.

HI-Y

promotes faith; win or lose
"To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," that is the purpose have done an excellent job of living up to this purpose.

Hi-Y, to the West View boys, means more than just a club. It is a place where all are welcome and able to serve their friends. The job they do may not be widely praised - like selling candy at a football game - but without their work and co-operation the football games would not be run so smoothly. Hi-Y gives the members a feeling of belonging to something worthwnile. The membership is so popular organization in the school most pular organization in the school.
Roys or shine, every Wednesday night school library. Impressive devotional services were held at the beginning of each meeting. The program varied with many educational and entertaining movies and lectures.

The Hi-Y is noted for its outstanding activities and socials. Very often the -Teen was invited to enjoy the fun. ial chapel services at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter were conducted by the Hi-Y. The Senior Breakfast for boys and the Father and Son Banquet were annual events which highlighted the year. In the fall the boys were formally recognized as members of the Hi-Y at an impressive induction ceremony.

The governing body was the efficient cabinet which consisted of the president, Bob Stoker; vice-president, Carl Hanks; Barry Powell ; chaplain, Howard Womsley; and heads of the various committees. Mr. Craig, the sponsor, helped these hard working fellows to have a lot of fun and make this year's Hi-Y the most successful.

Y-Teen! Y-Teen! Y-Teen! This was the cry that echoed through the halls of West View for the first few weeks of school. Already Yvonne Schalek, president; Mrs. Craig, sponsor ; and the cabinet had begun work on the plans for the year.

In October an impressive candlelight service was held to welcome the new and old members. At this meeting the officers were given special recognition Selling refreshments at the football games helped the financial status of the club, and every girl thought it fun.

As the year progressed the meetings proved to be great successes. The pro grams varied with speakers, movies, and service projects. They also had many socials with the Hi-Y. This added more good fellowship and entertainment.

The Y-Teen held the annual Senior

Breakfast for the senior girls in the spring. The undergraduates served while the girls enjoyed a delicious breakfast.

To wind up the year two big projects got underway.

The trip to Cook's Forest was looked forward to by both the Y-Teen and Hi-Y. Everyone got out his boots, walking cane, and sleeping bag for a weekend of camping.

In the spring the Y-Teen sponsored a carnival on the lots behind the school There were many booths and a street dance. It turned out to be a huge success. The proceeds from the carnival set up a full treasury for the following year.

Y-Teen is one of the most popular organizations in the school. This year the members have made a better club and upheld its high standards.

CHEERLEADERS

unite the spirited crowd

Go! Team! Go! This was one of the battle cries that urged West View teams on to victory. The cheers this past season were led by seven spirited varsity cheerleaders.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Caruso, the cheerleaders have shown a very successful year. During the summer months they practiced regularly. Marie Strupek was their peppy and capable captain.

This year West View found an entirely different group of cheerleaders. The number of cheerleaders was cut from twelve to seven. Their style of cheering was also changed. They used different arm motions, leg positions, and new jumps. Th cheers were short "fight" cheers that have a lot of "punch." Band cheers were used extensively and proved to be a hit with the students. To help promote more enthusiasm among the students, the cheerleaders, with the assistance of the band and Pep Club, sponsored many successful pep meetings.

New uniforms accented our cheerleaders this year. Corduroy jumpers served as two separate outfits. During football season, they wore big white wooly sweaters over top. While for basketball season, the girls wore white sport blouses under their jumpers. Either way the cheerleaders made an attractive appear ance.

Our cheerleaders have made many improvements this year. With every girl's co-operation they have set a new stand ard for the coming years.

PEP CLUB

boltsers the school spirit

The Pep Club has created a schoo spirit that was really tops this year. They have truly lived up to their name. The hering students that drove them on to victory.
During football season the club gaily decorated the auditorium with red and yellow crepe paper to lend spirit to the pep assemblies. Miniature paper footballs, majorette boots, and cheerleader megaphones adorned the walls and "Fight!" posters were hung in the halls to urge the players on to a successful sport sea son. For every football game the Pep They gave out red and yellow beanies with our mascot, the Indian on them
Members of the Pep Club collected the tickets for the football games, basketball games, and the wrestling matches This year after football season they spon sored a "Football Dance" in honor of the players.

The leaders responsible for such an outstanding jcb were: Yvonne Schalek, president; Elaine Blind, vice-president Solari, treasurer. However, the club's success was also due to the ardent committee heads. They were: Vivian Weber, business manager; Nedra Walford, decoration committee; Diane Novak, ticket commit tee; Roy Williams, publicity committee Ila Windle, typing committee; Bill Marra, entertainment committee. Miss Rucker and Mr. Martorelli were the club's helpful sponsors

Since the Pep Club was organized a few years ago, it has made terrific progress in promoting good school spiri View has benefited greatly from the club, and students are proud to be members.

LATIN CLUB

$I_{\text {came }} I_{\text {saus, }} I_{\text {conquered }}$

The first meeting of the West View Chapter of the Junior Classical League was held in September, soon after school started. The Latin Club was composed of students from first and second year Latin classes. There were also a few students who were taking third and fourth year Latin.

The Club met after school or in the evenings twice a month, usually on Tuesday. The meetings were called to order by the consuls. Devotions were conducted by the Pontifex Maximus, or High Priest. Both the Lord's Prayer and the flag salute were said in Latin. Following the devotions they often sang Latin songs. The program coincided with the various seasons. At Christmas time they sang carols in Latin in an assembly. The meetings were adjourned by the reading of the Pledge of the Jr. Classical League.

Field trips were often high spots of the year. One trip was to Pittsburgh to see the motion picture "Quo Vadis." The movie was about the ancient rulers of Rome, and so fitted in with what the Latin students were studying

Every year, in February, the students celebrate Latin Week. This year they went to the Buhl Planetarium to see a sky show and many exhibits. Many of the West View Latin students entered projects to be put on exhibition.

In the spring the annual Roman Banquet was held. These and many other activities made this year's club successful. Under the guidance of the Latin teacher and sponsor, Miss Della Vance, the club functioned smoothly.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

rough and tumble

Even our very feminine girls at West View saw the need for sports to build a well-rounded personality. To meet the great demand created by the energetic girls we had the well-known G. A. A. The girls were not as fortunate as the boys to be able to play in inter-scholastic games. Therefore, they played intra-mural games. Each girl in the G. A. A. hoped that she would receive the rose and gold G. A. A. letter to wear on her sweater or jacket. A girl must have earned fifty points to be awarded the G. A. A. letter. Points were given for attendance, games played, and games won

All during the year the girls eagerly waited for the big day when the women faculty members played the outstanding athletes in G. A. A. in volley ball. This year the girls won 52-41.

Usually the G. A. A. was divided into two parts; the senior high and junior cause many games that they played required more participants than were in the senior high of G. A. A. Among the sports and games they played were basketball, volley ball, softball, soccer, mush ball, and deck tennis, depending on the season. Basketball was the favorite sport of the G. A. A. members.

This valuable organization taught the girls team work and fair play. They also learned good sportsmanship and good fellowship. The girls became better acquainted with their classmates and enjoyed every contest.

Miss Aiken was the very capable sonsor. She willingly stayed after school to supervise and coach the games.

The Girls Athletic Association has shown an outstanding and successful year.

HALL PATROL

keeps us in bounds

We students at West View High us. ually pride ourselves on being able to stand up for our rights, but there is one group that pushed us around and made us like it. This group was known as the Hall Patrol.

Don't get the idea that we enjoyed having our freedom curtailed; that's not the way we looked at it. Those students on the Hall Patrol served the same purpose as a traffic officer or a red light on the corner. They tried to protect us from corner. They tried to protect us from head-on collisions with other students. Their duty was to keep the halls in order by preventing students from wandering from one side to the other or stopping at lockers between classes.

Some of the hardest working girl and boys in senior high were members of the Hall Patrol. Evidence of their capabil ity was shown during the lunch periods. Every Hall Patrol member had to be on his post and ready to keep the hungry students from dashing to the cafeteria. The next job was to keep students from going to their lockers until the period was over. The halls had to be kept quiet because there were many classes in session.

The Hall Patrol members, together with Mr. Craig, their sponsor, and Chuck Beck, the Secretary of Traffic, participated in an activity which consumed much time throughout the year and for which too little credit was given.

West View bestows the rose and gold armband on them not as a symbol of authority, but as a badge of merit for service and a job well done.

STAGE and PROJECTION CREW

prepares the equipment

Did you ever stop to think about all the work and time that goes into putting on an assembly? Most of the student body never saw or realized the work that went on behind the scenes or curtain. You just sat back and enjoyed whatever was on the program. That was what you were supposed to do. The Stage Crew did their job so efficiently that there was no disturbance or interruption during the pro grams.

The captain of this dependable team was Ron Eaton. The head of the crew is always the vice-president of the school This diligent crew of workers was under the sponsorship of Mr. Metz. Mr. Metz trained the boys so that they were wellacquainted with every prop used for various kinds of scenes.

The boys did not get a part of being seen in the assemblies for they were the men behind the scenes. They set up the equipment for the assemblies, and after everyone had enjoyed the program and left, it is these boys who stayed and did the job of cleaning up. The more effective programs required the boys' knowledge of operating the lights and curtain. The boys also put in extra hours for outside activities.

The Junior and Senior Class plays re quired the most work of the Stage Crew There were scenes to be changed and special lighting effects.

The services of the Stage Crew were volunteered unselfishly. These handy boy did an excellent job to make the assemblies and other activities enjoyable

MIXED CHORUS

provides the entertainment

West View High School was noted for its fine program of activities. However, one activity, the mixed chorus, has done perhaps more than any other group, to perhapsicize our school and promote outstanding school spirit among the students, faculty, and parents.

A large part of their success was due to their popular and talented director, Miss Alice Conner

Choosing the chorus members was quite a job in itself. Tryouts, testing sightreading and voice quality, were held last spring. Those scoring the highest became the competition did not end there. For the first time in the history of the West View High Chorus a smaller group was chosen from Mixed Chorus to form a Traveling Choir. The Traveling Choir represented the school on a number of trips to neighboring places, including several district colleges.

As usual, the Mixed Chorus this year had a full schedule. A new cantata, replacing the traditional "Childe Jesus" took place at Christmas time. They also sang an operetta was presented. At the climax of the season was the annual Spring Fesof the season was a presentation of the year's best music.

To try to summarize the achieve ments of the Mixed Chorus in the year 1951-1952 is needless and would seem like mere repetition of the glories of the preceding years. Its reputation is well establish ed, and its place is secure in all of our hearts.

BAND and MAJORETTES

half time entertainment

Half-time at the football game wouldn have been quite the same without the high stepping band and majorettes. For every tuneful song or march that the band played, the line of majorettes made up a snappy dance step or a tricky twirling routine. Each football game was highlighted by a peppy performance. Some of the football fans' favorite routines were the "Charleston," "Wooden Soldiers"" and were the "Charleston," Wooden Soldiers, and traditional "Mister Touchdown U. S. A."
A lot of hard work, supervised by Mr. Caruso, was needed for performing such outstanding and original routines. During the summer the band and majorettes went to band camp for a week at Slippery Rock Falls Park. There they spent long hours practicing and drilling.

Before school was out in the spring the band elected the officers for the year 1951-52. They were: president, Chuck Beebee; vice-president, John Derbish; secretary-treasurer, Bob Taylor; librarian, Joan Hartstein. Joan's job was to keep the music in order. She, and the others, did a fine job as the band's leaders.

Harry Morrison was the head major. Following him were Lois Smith, the captain of the majorettes, and Ginny Hartman. The line of majorettes were next in the line-up and then the band itself.

Toward the end of the football season tho band and majorettes received new uniforms, Our band had already outshined all others, but now with these smart new uniforms, consisting of red trousers and white jackets, they are assured of being terrific successes wherever they march.

The West View High School Band doesn't limit its activities to the school alone. They march at various parades and occasionally during the year, present band concerts. Our band brings much publicity home too, as is exempli fied by the invitation extended to them to march on November 17, 1951 at Forbes Field, for a Steeler's football game

West View has a band of which she can be, and is, proud to call her own. The West View High School Band has brought fame to the school. The students are proud of our spectacular band.

SHUFFLE SHOP COMMITTEE

provides recreation

Paint, brushes, scissors, and crep paper - the familiar props of the Shuffle Shop Committee. The committee took charge of planning and decorating for all of the special dances at Shuffle Shop and the job of taking registration at the dance The job that the hard-working committe members did was not an easy one. Many times they gave up their entire Saturday afternoons to help out when needed. Although the decorating sometimes took from two to five hours, the members al ways showed up with a diligent and helpful attitude. The committee decorated for a number of special dances including a football dance honoring this year's successful team. For Halloween, Shuffle Shop changed its name to "Spook Shop." O course, the biggest dance attraction of the year was the ever-popular Christma Dance with its behristmas tree. Other dances were, a Valentine Dance, favorite, the crowning of the King and Queen of Shuffle Shop:

Under the efficient leadership of Secretary Roy Williams, the dances were all successful and well attended.

Besides decorating, there were the weekly duties of setting up the risers for the band, cleaning the floor, and taking registration every Saturday night. All these tasks were taken care of by the thirty members. Without their help, Shuffle Shop would not have been the smooth, well-run dance it proved to be.

The new members were officially invited to join the society at the annual tapping ceremony that was held in the early pring. They were given yellow ribbons to wear during the day to designate the

When the 1951 football season opened, things didn't seem to add up too well. With only four lettermen returning, Coach Martorelli and Coach Guadagnino had a tremendous rebuilding job to do. Nevertheless, with the true W. V. spirit of the boys, the job was completed. The team started its daily practices at its own "dust bowl" and then added the final touches at football camp; the Highland Camp in Edinboro. The squad won seven games and lost two. This has not been bettered by any team at West View.

Frank Nardulli and Don Short co-captained the team this year. Frank was a letterman and did a sparkling job at fulliback. He remembered for his dazzling long runs that netted him a total of sixteen touchdowns in his high school career. Don also called the plays for the defensive and offensive teams. Don proved his football spirit when he was moved from quarterback to guard.

Dick Feffer, a letterman too, held down the defensive and offensive left end position. Dale Kunkel was our other letterman. Dale doubled as fullback in a number of plays in the Shaler game. His running pulled the team out of several bad holes and helped us to win. fensive and offensive guard positions.
Ed Naumann and Reed Vickerman, both Juniors, were first string linemen. Ed's firm fingers over the pigskin made sure that W. V. the other defensive and offensive tackle other defensive and offensive tackle.
ping right end. Chuck played a good defensive ging right end. Chuck played a good defensive end also. Many times he cut down the interference so the back-up could make the tackle. Ron Eaton, Chuck Rebel, and Ron Nelson rounded out the backfield. Eaton, who could run like the wind, was always throwing timely blocks and making good tackles at his defensive backer up position. Chuck made many of
W. V.'s touchdowns possible with his accurate passing arm. Ron Nelson took over the wing slot during mid-season.
Other seniors who did not play regularly, Denton Dailey, and Roy Williams. Tackle, Bruno Solari. Guards, Tony Furguiele and John Cuda. Center, Don Rethage. Backs, Chuck Haines and Tom Royston. Tom came through for the team in the Beaver game when he filled in for Eaton, who was injured. John Burnham and Don Smith, both juniors, also backed up the guard. Fay Miller, a junior, kicked the extra points for the Viewers. Fay had a total record of fourteen conversions out of twenty-six attempts for the season.
W. V. played host to Penn Twp. on September 7, for their season opener. The Indians got off to an early lead and surprised everyone by handing Penn High an AA school, a 25 to 6 defeat on four touchdowns and one extra point. The Viewers romped over Avonworth 41 to 12 on six $1 D$ s and frve extra traveled to Oliver High and trounced Oliver's eleven 39 to 0 . The second string came through in the final moments of the game and scored spinning heads and another loss. The Indians then returned home and played a hard fought game with their first Class A rival, Beaver High School. Nelson intercepted a pass and turned in a 98 yard run to tie the game 13 to 13 late in the fourth quarter. Smith then intercepted a lateral and ran 55 yards for a $T$. D. to put W. V. in front by a score of 20 to 13 over a powerful Beaver eleven.

The following week our school's eleven traveled to Bellevue for the annual rivalry.
$\mathrm{W} . \mathrm{V}$. eked out a 13 to 12 win on Fay Miller's successful extra point in the fourth quarter. The braves came back home the following week for their toughest game of the season against McKees Rocks, a strong contender for Class A honors. McKees Rocks snapped W. V.'s winning streak of five games after scoring quickly in the first quarter. At their last home game, they came back to defeat Shaler 20 to 7 on three touchdowns and one extra point: The High. Hurst defeated W. V. 12 to 6. Bad breaks for the team turned the tables against them and they went down to defeat at the hands of a spirited Hurst eleven. Again W. V. came back. They traveled to Clark High and chalked up number seven after a cold and wet game on a sloppy, snow covered field. This proved that Coach Martorelli and Coach Guadagnino had succeeded this year.

Yes, the football, squad of 1951 deserves a hearty "well done." The coaches, the managers, and the boys built a team from four lettermen and a group of game and spirited with a season's record unequalled by any team at W. V., seven wins and two losses.

He drives in, lays it up, scores!!! That was the familiar cry that rang through the gym a week after football season ended. This time basketball moved into the spotlight. At the start of the season the squad had fewer returning regulars than did the football team. This year, Mr. Martorelli didn't have a letterman back from last year's squad, to help him the reconstruction of a new team
West View's quintet opened their 1951-52 season with eight exhibition games. They IX on January 4, 1952. The entire squad used these eight games to best entire squad used put the finishing touches on their defensive and offensive strategy and corrected the flaws in their shooting accuracy. With wins over the Faculty, Avonworth, Bellevue, and Aspinwall, and losses to North Catholic, Brentwood, Avonworth, and Washington, the Indians entered their bid in the competition for section honors.

West View's basketball five started the season off with 2 wins. One was over Coraopois, $58-50$. and the other over the Crafton quinis, 58-50. and the ot High, whose team was the only real threat to W. V.'s supremacy in Section IX. The Rox were at home and W. V. just couldn't get used to the big floor at McKees Rocks, as they went down to defeat 61-53. The Braves then caught fire and burned up the league as they won eleven straight contests. One of these wins was a thrilling 56 to 55 win over the Rox. The game definitely under pressure because they . was win in order to stay in the sectional race Play seesawed back and forth up to the very last seesawed back and forth up to the very last beautiful one hand jump shot that put W. V. and Rox High in a deadlock for the section title.

Because W. V. and the Rox were tied for the section lead with 13 and 1 records, a playoff game was necessary. Both teams carried their hopes for the section title, on February 22, to the newly constructed Pitt Field House.

The game was a touch and go contest all the way, but the Roxmen came through with a field goal in the final seconds of the game to edge goal in the final seconds of the game to edge lead the majority of the game.

This year the weight of the rebounding work was carried on the shoulders of Sam Garvin and Barry Brautigam. Sam, a senior, was a dead shot with his one hand push shot from the outside. "Smiley" used his rebounding ability and his shooting accuracy to put together a total of 224 points. Barry, a promising 6 o when he spread-eagled for those rebounds. Barry's turn around jump shot never seemed to miss as he dumped in a total of 421 points. This was a new record for individual scoring at W. V. Frank Nardulli, Whitey Rebel, and Ron Nelson took up the positions out front. Although Frank was small in height, he was always in there scrapping when it came to scrambling for those rebounds. Frank did his share in scoring, too, as he ran up a total of Whiternts. Whitey Rebel chased on derense. floor and proved it by ranking second in individual scoring with 293 points. Ron Nelson was an excellent passer and the playmaker of the team. Ron seldom shot, but when he did they were sure to go in. Ron added a total of 126 points to the team's grand total of 1,438 points. This number of points was well over any that any previous teams at W. V. had scored and a new record for team scoring in one season. Other boys on the squad were: seniors, Don Shuker and Denton Dailey. Don was a ough boy under the boards when he started to "Mumbo" was famous for driving hard on his lay up shots. Al Urich and Don Smith, both juniors, were also kept in reserve and came through when they were called upon. Other juniors on the team were Bob Larson, Chuck Beck, and Ron Eaton.

In addition to being "almost" champs of Section Nine the team put some new figures in the record books. The team passed up the previous records of team scoring of 1,100 points with Barry's 421 . The team also won seventeen games, which surpassed the previous mark of 13. They also scored more points in one game when they defeated W. Allegheny 90 to 61 .

Although the squad didn't win the section, congratulations and honors are in line for Mr. Martorelli and the entire team. As usual, with Mr. Martorelli's expert coaching and the true o-operalive and fighting spirit of the team, a team was put together that every student of West View High School can be proud of. To Mr. Martorelli and the entire 1951-52 team, ful ful season. We certainly hope that next year's team will have as much success as did this year's team and we wish them the best of luck.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

First row - D. Duncarr, B. Kummer, K. Beall, J. Nardulli
Second row - C. Zeig, B. Slemmer, J. Seybert, E. Huber, R. Weinzetl, R. Schmitz, A. Wespy

West View's Junior Varsity, under the di rection of Mr. Hare, showed that they too had a good team. They completed the season with a commendable record of thirteen wins in their twenty-one contests. The J. V. scored a total of 956 points in twenty-one games to give them an average of 45.5 points a game, compared to their opponents 900 points, an average of 42.9 points to a game

The J. V. squad was made up of fourteen sophomore boys. Out of the fourteen, eight of them earned their J. V. letter. In order to receive a letter, a boy had to play at least half of the quarters. J. Mattys and E. Huber were the two boys who played under the basket. It was very seldom that one of these two boys didn't get the rebounds. D. Duncan, K. Beall, B. Kum mer, and J. Nardulli brought the ball down the floor and were the play makers for the team. T. Bowser, and B. Weinzetl were kept on reserve, but proved valuable when they were needed. Other members of the team were: J Seybert, B. Fritz, B. Slemmer, B. Schmitz, B. Randolph, and P. Bassett. J. Mattys was the high scorer for the J. V. with a total of 270 points and an average of 13.5 points a crame.
Championship teams are made on the ba sis of how well they can shoot, rebound, and maintain fighting spirit. These things can only be accomplished by experience. That is what these boys are doing, so when they reach the Varsity they will be able to play a better game. It gives the boys the experience of hard competitive games and gives them an idea of what is in store for them when they reach the Varsity. If these players continue to improve and play the kind of ball they are capable of playing, West View is bound to have a winning team in the future.

As the new year rolled around, West View's mighty mat men began their practice for the coming season. All candidates. ranging from ninth grade to twelfth grade, met with Coach Ivor Smith in the Highland School gymnasium. After a short briefing by the coach, the mats were rolled out and practice began. As the weeks progressed, the team went through the many rigorous training routines, which included jumping rope, calisthentics, practice matches, and running. These helped to build up wind, regulate weight, and improve timing. wind, regulate weight, and improve timing.

At every practice session, Coach Smith was there to lend a helping hand to the newcomers and give additional information to the hold-overs from last year's squad. His advice on various holds was invaluable to the new members as well as the old members of the team.

Although many boys showed up for practice, all of them did not wrestle in the actual matches. The boys that wrestled in the matches were chosen by the process of elimination during tryouts. These tryouts were held just before each match and the winners of the tryouts were the combatants in the matches.

The Indians began the season with a bang by defeating West Allegheny in a breath-taker which ended in a $28-27$ score. After losing the next four matches our valiant wrestlers, instead of losing confidence in themselves, regained their strength and overpowered West Allegheny in a rough and tumble 37-20 decision. The Viewers went on to win a decision over Dormont in a close match which ended in a 24-23 score. The team played the role of loser in the last two matches.

In the early part of March, after the regular season was completed, four members of the team were entered in the W.P.I.A.L. district tournaments at Washington, Pennsylvania. The purpose of the district tournament is to determine who will go on to the state tournadetermine who will go on to the state tournament and who will not. To become eligible, a ment and who will not. To become eligible, a boy must have been victorious in five or more boy must have been victorious in five or more of his regular seasonal matches. The four entries from West View were Faye Miller at 127 pounds, Tony Furgiuele, our star senior wrestler at 133 pounds, Leo Tubridy in the 138 pound class, and Fred Reubi at 145 pounds. We wish these fellows luck at the tournament.

The team had its share of injuries this year too. Ed Conrad and Don Rethage both cracked ribs, while Ross Mchler, a freshman, received a broken collar bone during practice

This squad has been one of West View's better teams in recent seasons and has done much to promcte clean sportzmanship among the fellows. Many of the boys will be returning next year and the student body looks forward to a top notch wrestling combination next year, too.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The varsity was not the only team with a good football record this year. The Junior Varsity had its most successful season also. They ended the season with a total of five wins and only one loss.

The J. V. was composed of boys from the sophomore class only, because the freshmen were playing for the newly organized junior high school team. During the early part of the season the boys worked out with the varsity in the long, hard practices. Then when the varsity was chosen, the sophomore boys in need of a little more training were put on the J. V.

Under the fine coaching of Mr. Hare and r. Harper, the boys were taught and drilled n the fundamentals of football. They not only should be used ase them, but also when they

"Fore!" was the familiar cry as the 1951 Golf Team walked the fairways to a W.P.I.A.L. championship.

March came and with it, a new golf season. West View's hopeful golfers moved to Highland School for some indoor practice and to work out some of the kinks acquired over the winter. The Indians had a very successful season. They won fourteen matches and lost but one. Ten of these wins were in sectional competition. Three were in the playoffs and one in exhibition. W. V.'s only defeat was supplied at the hands of Shadyside Academy, after W. V. defeated them earlier in the season

One of the main factors of West View's success was the ability of a team member to come through with a timely victory when one of his team-mates had an off day.

Mr. Tiffany, the team's expert coach, had three holdovers from last year's sectional championship team. They were Hub Garver, Wilfred Black, and Bill Thomas. The two vacant positions were filled by Erv Armstrong and Sam Ciocca, with John Michaels giving valuable assistance as a substitute, when any of the first five were absent.

The team's first match was with Avonworth at Highland Country Club, the Viewer's home course, where the Indians won easily. The team moved through their league schedule without a loss, receiving only one setback, by a non-league team.

After eleven victories and only one loss the Viewers traveled to Butler for their first playoff match. The team met some rough competition from Penn and the match was not decided until Sam Ciocca sunk a long putt on the last green to put West View into the semifinals. This match was played at Alcoma Country Club with Butler High, where the Indians again came through with a decisive victory, which put the team in the finals.

It was a dark and windy day at Chartiers Country Club, and eight nervous golfers watched while the two captains teed off. It was a battle for every point but the Viewers drove, putted, and chipped their way into another W.P.I.A.L. championship

Congratulations to a fine golf team, and may the team of 1952 do as well.

1951 BASEBALL

First row - Coach Hartman, J. Holliday, T. Bowser, D. Stack, F. Nardulli, L. Bergman, C. Albosta, D. Smith, C. Haines
Second row - A. Miller, J. Geipel, C. Rebel, R. Selko, D. Rask, D. Heintz, R. Nelson, J. Mast Second row - A. Miller, J. Geipel, C. Rebel, R. Selko, D. Rask, D. Heintz, R. Nelson, J. Mast
Third row - D. Uhlenburg, W. Dietrich, J. Mattys. B. Young. B. Randolph, J. Nardulli Fourth row - D. Kunkel, T. Krupar, M. Heim, P. Basset, A. Watts, E. Naumann

The West View High School W.P.I.A.L baseball team, under the expert direction of Mr. Hartman, has won their third straigh Mr. Hartman, has won their third straight section crown. Last year the Indians had an overall record of eleven wins, In league competition the Viewers went undefeated, winning seven and losing none. At the end of the season West View was on top of Section VI, two games ahead of second place Neville. In the W. P. I. A. L. section playoffs, West View was defeated by West Allegheny. The score was West Allegheny 8, West View 0

Looking at the records we found most of Rebel and Dale Kunkel were given to Whitey and lost none His four wins included a gomes o-run game against Bellevue. Dale Kunkel' record was three and zero record was three and zero.
Looking further into Dick Stack leading the team in the batting de partment with an average of .417 . On the base paths, Lyle Bergman made up his average with eight stolen bases, leading the team in this de partment

At the start of the season Lyle Bergman received the pitches, but this job was late taken over by Ted Bowser, a promising fresh man. Bergman then was transferred to the out field. The infield consisted of Dick Stack at bosta at thi Nardulli at second, Chester

In the outfield we found Lyle Bergman Ted Krupa, and Don Smith. Don Smith took Jeff Leake's place after he received an injury in the game with Neville. Thus, the Indians had a well-rounded team. Other members valuable to the team were R. Nelson, B. Young, Mattys, A. Watts, J. Giepel, B Selko, M Heim P Randolph D. J.lenberg R. Eaton P Bas sett, C. Phillips, E. Naumann, D. Fisher, T Becktold, and W. Dietrich.

Credit should be given to a deserving team for winning the section crown for the third straight year.

MAY FESTIVAL

The first evidence of spring at West View comes with the anticipa tion of the crowning of the 1952 May Queen. Since February, when the an Queen. Since February, when the anants was made, the suspense has risen. Then the exciting night had arrived.

The trumpeters and jesters an nounced that another gala celebration was about to begin. First in the pro cession were the members of the Westvian staff who had devoted most of their senior year to turning out the ' 52 yearbook, and their escorts.

Following the court, came the Queen's personal attendants. This year they were Carole Kennedy pek. Then came the two ladies-inpek. Then came the two ladies-inwaiting Janet Moore, Joan Hartstein, They were all gowned in white and carried colorful bouquets. There was a pause and the May Queen hersel entered. Her bouquet was white and she wore the symbolic train of queen. The retiring Queen, Carol Schultheis, crowned Her Majesty the Queen, Barbara Cannon. The court attendants. The recessiona concluded another May Day success

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY 1951  "What a Life"

"What a life!" The best way to describe how Henry Aldrich and his friends felt about the complicated life they led. Henry, who was notorious for his ability to get in trouble, certainly wasn't helped by the funniest teacher a school ever had. After being accused of cheating on a test, Henry tried to clear himself but only found that he was involved in a theft. Barbara, Henry's girl, tried desperately to help him out but only succeeded in becoming involved herself. Miss Wheeler, the victim of the theft, finally resorted to calling in Detective Ferguson to solve the case. Along with the lost instruments in Central High, was a student, Mary, whose Italian father was the comedian of the play. The real culprit was George Bigelow, the high school snob, who tried to steal Henry's girl. As the play moved on, we found Miss Shay, Mr. Bradly's secretary, and Mr Nelson, the assistant principal, falling in love, giving the play a romantic aspect. Of course we can never forget the students who made the halls in the play seem as alive as the halls of West View. As the third act came to an end, everything miraculously straightened out. The hero and heroine were happy just as were the Juniors as their Junior Class Play came to an end. "All good things come last" and as we would like to take this opportunity to honor Miss Delp who really made the play a success with her tireless and capable directing. To us, "What A Life," was "What A Play!"

SENIOR CLASS PLAY 1952 "The Divine Flora"

Choosing a play was left in the hands of Mr. Craig who did both the casting and directing. He chose a three act comedy by Ryerson and Clements called "The Divine Flora."

The play, which was presented March 19, 20 , and 21 , portrayed the trials of a shy, motherless, awkward girl of fifteen beset by two boys whose sole ambition was to become advertising executives. They start proving their ability by getting an internationally known band leader by the name of Tex Arlen to dub her as Flora the Divine. This made Sharon, Randy's sister, quite jealous of Flora as Tex was her guest. He had given most of his attention to Flora. Things really started to pop when 'Tex's girl read about this and Flora's father ordered her home. Tex and Flora did start home but this move was misinterpreted and everyone thought they had eloped. Their plane had engine trouble and crashed into an isolated mountain, but they found a farmer who rented them his truck and got back in time to be greeted by Flora's father and Tex's girl. The purpose of their trip then came out and Tex and Daphne announced their marriage to the surprise of everyone.

Through the trials and tribulations of Randy, Buzz, and Flora things finally straightened out. Flora's father saw her as an attractive young girl and Randy and Buzz both got jobs with Dean, Dugan, and Drugett.

The senior class wishes to extend its thanks to Mr. Craig.

JUNIOR PROM 1951

Our Victory Ball

Dim lights, soft music, and West View Danceland - a perfect setting for our Junior Prom, a wonderland where dazzling couples floated to the lovely strains of Baron Elliot and his Orchestra.

The special night came on Friday, May 4, 1951. Although everyone was afraid it would rain, the day dawned clear and bright. The night was beautiful and the stars in the sky matched those in the lovely ladies' eyes as they arrived with their handsome escorts. After greeting the reception committee, the couples clided to the bewitching dance floor to enjoy glided to the il the music until intermission. Then we were entertained with magic tricks and antics that truly added to the lovely evening.

The Prince Charmings and Cinderellas took a moment to have their pictures taken so that they would have a small token of a big event.

The clock struck twelve and so ended the never-to-be-forgotten Junior Prom. As the orchestra played "Good-night Sweetheart," the weary couples drifted from Danceland to continue their glamorous evening, so leaving not only the Prom behind, but a very wonderful Junior year as well.

HOBO HOUSE

Jime Out

Welcome Hobos! The annual hobo gathering was held at the Hobo House, commonly called North Park Lodge, on Friday, November 9, 1951. All senior hobos were invited to attend and to come in their best hobo clothes.

To start the evening rolling, many couples arrived early so they could form their circles and start the fun rolling to the lively rounds of square dance music.

About halfway through the evening, all the hobos retired to the basement, "city dump," for refreshments. While everyone was enjoying the Mulligan's Stew, better known as food, some of the better dressed hobos put on a skit
Three boys: Frank Nardulli, Tom Royston, and Don Uhlenburg were on trial for breaking some of the very traditional hobo rules. They were tried by a very honest upright jury that consisted of judges Roy Williams, Bob McCartney, Bruno Solari, and Don Rethage. They were found not guilty, however, and were free to go on with their lives.

After the skit, everyone went back upstairs and resumed their square dancing

Everyone was having such a terrific time that the evening seemed to end all too soon. The Senior Hobos of 1952 will always remember the wonderful evening they spent at the "Hobo House."

SHUFFLE SHOP

Jrades Spikes for Suedes

Do you like soft music, dimmed lights, hot dogs, and "Cokes?" Well, you can find all these things every Saturday night at Shuffle Shop You can also find happy couples dancing to the rhythmic music of Jack Shankle's band. Unde the watchful eye of our male secretary, Roy Williams, the Shuffle Shop committee worked full capacity. One of the big attractions or full capacity. One when Art Pallan he year occurred when Art Pallan and RCA Victor Caravan visited Shurle shop and pre sented door prizes to many of the lucky comers, Another big attraction was the "Sock Dance." Everybody checked their shoes at the door and had a really swell time dancing in their socks

Everyone appreciated the change at Shuf fle Shop to three songs to a dance since it gave the fellows and girls a little longer to dance together.

Many different dances each month gave Shuffle Shop variety-those ever-popular bluejean dances were hits, as usual, and Halloween, Christmas, and spring dances really gave Shuft'le Shop added appeal.

Before we knew it, another year had passed and along with it memories never to be forgotten.

Included in the thanks for the efforts of Roy Williams and the S. S. committee, goes another vote of thanks to all the parents who willingly gave up their Saturday nights to chaperone Shuffle Shop-our favorite dance.

First row - Harry Pople, Carol Gallwits
Socond row - Roy Williams, Joan Hartstein, Nancy Jones, Frank Nardull

OUTSTANDING SENIORS

Star Players

Each year we seniors select eight of us who we think are the most outstanding. This year's outstanding seniors were outstanding in every sense of the word. Take for instance Harry. Pople and Carol Gallwits. They were chosen Most Likely To Succeed. With Harry's ease of handling things and capability he Carol as the editor-in-chief of our paper has shown us that she is capable of handling both shown us that she is capable of handing both efforts and efficiency, both, we are certain will succeed in everything they do.

Then, there is Bob McCartney and Carole Kennedy who were voted as the two people ho Did Most For West View. Devoting he time to produce an exceedingly fine and well planned yearbook, Carole has shown us that the school benefited greatly by her laudible efforts. Having Bob as the President of our ed much of his time to outside activities for bet tering our school and its activities.
As for the Most Typical Girl of our class, nobody but Joan Hartstein could fit this title. One could always see her bubbling over with nergy, running to this meeting and then to that one. But we must not forget the Most Typical Boy, who was none other than our own Roy Williams. With Roy's witty remarks and his incredible humorous, attitude, he was always found "livening up" those dull classes.
Last but not least, we have Frank Nardulli and Nancy Jones filling the title of Mos Athletic. Nancy will never be forgotten as the best basketball player on the y-ieo the small G. A. A. man of our class. And having Frank on the football, basketball, and baseball teams has made him superior in the field of sports. We see an excellent future for Frank and all othe outstanding seniors of the class of 52 .

Alma Mater

Nestled snug 'mid wooded hilltops,

Shrined in every heart,
Our beloved Alma Mater
West View, fair thou art.

Voices gay, of youth and maiden, Echo 'round thy halls.
Memories tender cling forever
To thy chambered walls.

Chorus-

Alma Mater, we thy children
Tribute bring to thee,
Hail to thee, our dear old West View
Hail thy memory.
