FOREWORD

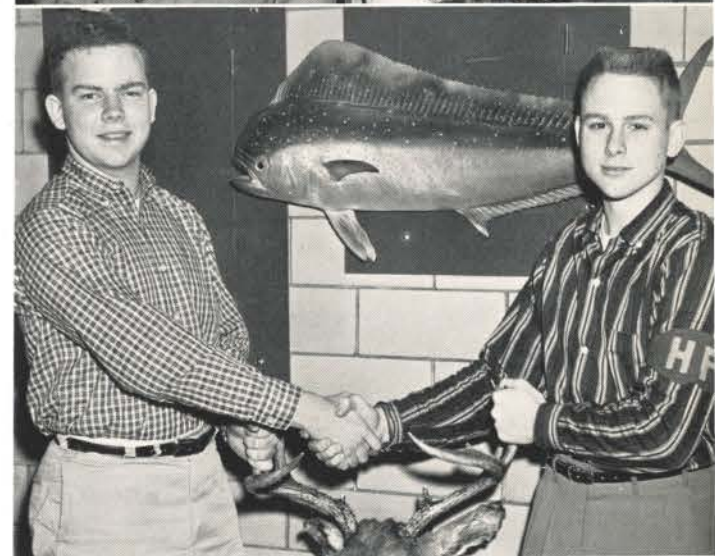

As the end of our high school days draws to a close, we seniors suddenly become aware of the wonderful life we must leave behind. Our lives, once striving together to reach the single goal of graduation, will follow divergent paths as we move uncertainly into the responsibilities and privileges of adult life. On Graduation Night, when we sing the Alma Mater as alumni for the first time, each memory of our high school days will become a treasured possession. The football games, class plays, the proms, Junior-Senior games, even classes themselves—all arouse pleasant recollections.

To you, Class of 1957, the editors wish the best that life can bring. May the 1957 Westvian be as a treasure chest of memories from your years at West View.

DR. R. S. RICE
Supervising Principal

Our very capable head of the school system is Dr. Rice. A very versatile instructor, Dr. Rice has taught sciences, social sciences, shop, English, music and guidance. He has earned three degrees—B.S., M.S., and Ed.D.—all from Penn State. He has been our supervising principal since 1939.

High on his list of avocations is photography, and Dr. Rice possesses a fine photographic record of West View events on colored slides.

MR. E. D. KRUSE
Assistant Supervising Principal

Mr. Kruse became Assistant Supervising Principal in 1956. Since that time he has instituted several reforms geared to make North Hills a better and more pleasant school system to attend.

A graduate of Slippery Rock State Teachers College, Mr. Kruse possesses his B.S. degree and M.Ed. degree from Pitt.

It is men of Mr. Kruse's caliber who make our school system what it is today.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. WILLIAM S. LUKE
High School Principal

Our sympathetic and popular high school principal is Mr. Luke. Like our other administrators, Mr. Luke makes a genuine effort to become acquainted with as many students as possible.

After receiving his B.S. degree from Pitt, Mr. Luke taught at several schools before coming to West View in 1945. He became our principal in 1951 and has served us excellently since then. He also has an M.Ed. degree from Pitt.

MISS HAZEL MCGINNIS
Assistant High School Principal

The tedious task of attendance officer belongs to Miss McGinnis, our hard-working assistant principal. Her background as a math teacher has served her well in her job of keeping all attendance records, determining the class rank of each pupil, and compiling the honor roll. In addition, she sponsors the National Honor Society.

A graduate of Pitt, Miss McGinnis has been assistant high school principal since 1952.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

One of the most important civic groups of our community is the Board of Education. Elected by the citizens of West View and Ross Township, the board members serve a term of six years. They hold at least one meeting a month in the high school library. These men are doing an excellent job of solving the school problems of our community.

Among the many duties and problems which fall into their hands are the usual ones of hiring personnel and maintenance workers, and regulating school taxes and expenditures. The over-crowded condition in our schools is going to be greatly reduced by the new high school on the Heim farm, the six-room elementary building in the Gass Road area, which is in use, and the three room addition to the Evergreen School. All of these new buildings are being made possible by the diligent planning of the board.

These conscientious board members are held in high esteem by students and citizens alike. The many opportunities made possible for us by the Board of Education through the years are valid proof of the time and efforts put forth by this organization. We, the students of West View High School, would like to thank this organization for all of these wonderful opportunities.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of West View High School is the elected representative body of the school. Its purpose is to democratically lead and serve the students in the best possible manner. Council consists of one representative from each homeroom and the cabinet officers, who were elected in the spring of 1956. The students were able to express their point of view on matters, suggest administrative changes, and bring up any business which they felt was important through their homeroom representative. Under the leadership of president Rod Kotchin, Council governed the student body, planned assemblies, developed school spirit, and worked with the faculty.

All business meetings of Student Council were held Monday mornings first period. On Tuesday mornings the nine cabinet members met to discuss any important matters that had not been covered the previous day.

The efficient work of the Cabinet and representatives, and the co-operation of all the students enabled Council to have a successful year. Mr. Metz and Miss Wadlinger, sponsors, added the necessary help and advice. Through Mr. Luke and the faculty the plans and programs of Council were permitted to go into effect. Because of the diligent work and co-operation of all concerned, Student Council conducted another eventful year at West View.

The cooks of "West View's Beanery," our cafeteria.

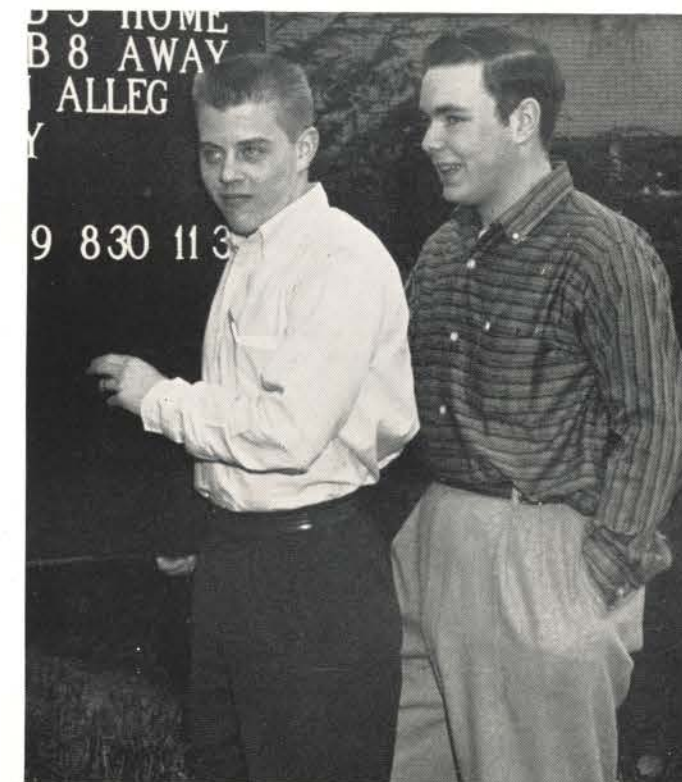

Student Council President Rod Kotchin listens intently as Guelfo Curri, our exchange student, tells him about life in Italy. A welcome addition to W.V., Guelfo is living with Mike Showe's family during his senior year here.

Every morning and afternoon over the public address system is the voice of one of these girls—Nancy Dobler, Jo Rocco, and Kathie Sproat. Thanks to them we are kept well-informed on the events around West View.

During the recent big presidential elections held in our nation, West View had her own mock election. Students were registered during the week preceding the election. Shown casting their ballots are Jesse Ullam and Sandra Thomas.

Bucky Brown and Vern Wheeler are the boys who take care of our bulletin board facing Perry Highway. By this method, the public is informed of West View events.

Aiding Miss Conner in her difficult task of leading the chorus were Linda Naumann, head accompanist, Phyllis Ihrig, assistant accompanist and head student director, Barbara McCracken and Jan Wise, assistant directors, standing.

Two familiar figures at the football games were Alan Coulter, our excellent drum major, and Norm Nething, our entertaining West View Indian.

The baseball managers for West View's 1956 team were Claiborn Cato, Keith Campbell, and Walt Perrin.

Editors of our fine school newspaper, the "West Wind" are:

Shuffle Shop goes gather around the piano as Tom Calhoun beats out accompaniment for Swing Band.

The art students of W.V. are the talented people whose handiwork is displayed in the beautiful window scenes built every year to match the changing seasons. Showing off their artistry are Barb Wass, Kathie Sproat, Snookie Wills, and George Leon.

"Ladies and Gentlemen: Presenting the West View High School Varsity Marching Band!" These words brought thrills to all the spectators as their attention was focused on the lively high-stepping band.

Every year all the members work hard to bring success to their organization. Practices are held all summer to learn the basic steps; then, at the end of August, the entire band goes to camp for a week of concentrated drilling. When school begins, the band is ready to perform during half-time at each football game.

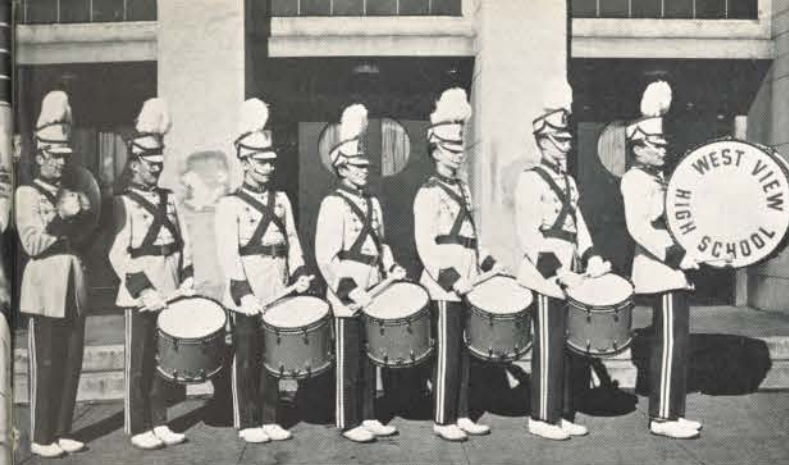

There was much work behind the success of the band. Alan Coulter, as drum major, led the band through all its marching feats. Diane Wentzel was captain of the majorettes, which group added much delight to all the routines. The activities of the band were planned by an efficient executive council and the officers. No one deserves more credit, though, than Mr. Caruso, the capable band director whose original ideas added to each show.

Hats off to every member of the band for helping bring so much school spirit to West View and for the enthusiasm it reflects on all the students.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

When a sports writer wrote last year that this year's team should really "go to town," he really said a mouthful, for this year's team racked up one of the most impressive records in West View history, with seven wins and two losses. In looking back over the records of this year's varsity team we also find that in their three years of playing for West View, the team has won twenty-one and lost only five games! With a nucleus of nine lettermen returning from last year, coaches Mario Martorelli and Guy Guadagnino built a powerful and smooth working football team.

quarterback position, and Regis Heil played fullback. Chuck Elkins was one of the most versatile replacements as he substituted anywhere and everywhere. Louis Nudi and Don Klaas had a bit of trouble with injuries and other complications, and so did not see too much action. Not to be forgotten are the team's senior managers, Bob Geis and Gary Kost.

The season had a very good start with a 13-0 victory over McKees Rocks. The next game, at Shaler, looked rather dark up to the halftime, but our boys came back with a 24-14 victory. The next game with Allderdice, we won by one point, 7-6. With the enthusiasm rising with each victory the Indians went on to scalp Oliver, 19-0; Monongahela, 25-7; and Trinity, 19-14. The next game was supposed to be a runaway, according to all the sports writers, but for Baldwin! With everyone cheering, though, the Indians won, 34-19. It was in this game that Ed Abel scored TDs on two 75-yard punt returns and a 45-yard dash from scrimmage. The next game was a heartbreaker, though, as we lost, 6-13. The last game saw the Indians lose to Mt. Lebanon by a score of 34-7.

Although this year's Junior Varsity football team did not have the best record in West View history, they did show great determination and spirit in all their contests. The games were all hard-fought games and served to give the boys some very valuable experience for the coming years.

The first game of the season saw our boys losing to Shaler by a score of 18-7, and we again lost when we played McKees Rocks in our second game, 13-6. The third game of the year was the shining victory of our Junior Varsity team, when they defeated Oliver by a rousing 12-0. Oliver, incidentally, had had a winning streak lasting over some three years!—That is, until they met our J.V. The Indians really went on the warpath this game and showed great promise for future football games. The next two games the Indians lost by identical scores, 13-7, to Shady Side and Penn, respectively. The last game of the season saw West View losing to Butler by a score of 18-12. The boys fought hard to even up the score; but the time was against them, and so they lost again.

Congratulations are due to the coaches, Mr. Grant Hare and Mr. James Harper, for their fine coaching, and to the boys on the team and the managers for their outstanding show of spirit and determination throughout the whole season. With this year's experience and their will to win, these boys should go on to lead West View to future varsity victories. Good luck, boys!

HALL PATROL

In a school as large as West View, there have to be laws to govern the actions of the students. In order to enforce these laws and to keep the broken legs, trampled bodies, concussions, and student insurance rates to a minimum, the Student Council has provided for a Secretary of Traffic who is in full charge of the Hall Patrol.

Last spring, the student body elected Ron Frisco as Secretary of Traffic. He and his assistant, Alan Meyerl, then named the members of Hall Patrol. The Hall Patrol consisted of thirty-eight boys who were stationed at regular posts in the halls. It was their sole duty to keep the students on the right side of the hallway and to keep them from blocking anyone's way. The boys were especially helpful to the new students during the first week of school.

A few of the more adventuresome, fearless boys volunteered their services during the lunch periods. These boys deserve a medal for bravery above and beyond the call of duty. They endured the throngs of approximately 300 hungry students rushing to the cafeteria each lunch period without any major casualties. The lunch patrol also insured the listening enjoyment of the lunch-time movie goers.

The Hall Patrol and Ron Frisco should be highly commended for their tireless efforts which have been rewarded by a job well done.

CHEERLEADERS

Behind the teams, pep assemblies and the spirit of West View were the versatile, peppy Varsity cheerleaders. Looking attractive in their new red jumpers, these six girls could be seen cheering for all the Varsity football games and all the Friday night basketball games. The pep assemblies they headed this year helped to promote spirit in everyone. Captain Peggy Ittel, Judy Briggs, Arlene Gasull, Judy Heinsberg, Janet Wise, and Carolyn Houston have been veterans of three or more years.

The six junior girls on our Varsity Cadette squad cheered at all the Tuesday night basketball games and at half-time during the football games while the seven sophomore Junior Varsity girls cheered for all the Junior Varsity games.

During the long hours of practice throughout the summer, and practices after school, the skilled Varsity cheerleaders perfected the old cheers and also made up new ones. Of course, without Mr. Caruso as their sponsor and helper, the squads could not have been as successful as they were.

PEP CLUB

Go, West View! is what you could hear from all Pep Club members at football and basketball games and pep assemblies. Their main job was to promote the school spirit and keep up the morale of all the teams. They certainly have succeeded this year. The school spirit is tops.

The club consisted of different committees. Each committee had a special job. The decorations committee took care of the auditorium for the pep assemblies. It took many hours after school for the great results seen at the pep assemblies. Members of the ticket committee were responsible for taking tickets and ushering at all the games. The publicity and posters committees took care of all the signs you saw in the halls and auditorium.

Much of the credit goes to JoAnn Rocco, the president, who was assisted by Pam Mugnani, vice president; Barbara Wass, secretary; and Sue Waite, treasurer. The club sponsor, Mr. Caruso, deserves a big cheer for the suggestions and the help that he gave the club.

Every member can be proud of his membership in such a worthwhile activity as the Pep Club.

On November 25, 1956, thirty-one excited West View students boarded a Newton-bound train at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station. These students, along with Mr. Metz, Miss Wadlinger, and Dr. and Mrs. Rice, composed the West View exchange group. The purpose of this group was to observe the differences between suburbs of Boston and Pittsburgh. Since each student from West View stayed with a student from Newton High, everyone was able to get an idea of a typical New England home. This was educational as well as very enjoyable. It proved to be a very busy and exciting week for our exchange group. They were able to see many historical points of interest, including Paul Revere's house, Lexington and Concord, Bunker Hill and Salem. The exchange group was able to attend classes at a school system different from that at West View. This also provided an opportunity for the West View students to meet Newton students other than those on the exchange. These are but a few of the things that the West View exchange did in their busy week at Newton. There were also many other activities such as touring a fish packing plant, fittingly called the Pew Fisheries, shopping in Boston, visiting the Naval Yard and, of course, going to social affairs. When the West View exchange returned home on December 1, they brought with them memories of meeting new people, seeing new things, and having many good times. At that time, the group immediately began planning for the week in April when they would be hosts to the Newton Exchange.

West View students absorb the historic atmosphere of Concord as they read the marker of Nathaniel Hawthorne's "Old Manse."

The water wheels which powered the iron works at Saugus were objects of great fascination for the visitors.

Standing on the damp hillside at Saugus, Newton students and West View listen as the guide tells about our nation's first iron foundry.

WEST WIND

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! All about the lives and times of West View's students, that is. The West Wind, our school paper, blew up quite a storm nine times during the year, covering all the latest happenings and gossip at West View.

Among the many things written up by our professional snoopers were the athletic events, fashions, club activities, assemblies, and dances. Items of interest from the papers of other schools were inserted, and nothing escaped the sharp wit of the staff for long. When the issue included a roto section, the queue in the auditorium at lunchtime, where the papers were sold, was longer than usual.

Under the editor-in-chief Ethel Fritsch, who was aided by the assistant editor Martha Willis, were nine staffs headed by their respective editors. They were Arlene Gasull, typing editor; Bonnie Mugnani, news editor; Peggy Ittel, features editor; Alan Meyerl, sports editor; Ann Walczak, art editor; Margie Fetter, business editor; JoAnn Rocco, circulation; Pamela Mugnani, exchange editor; and Robert Lillich, photography editor. The members of these staffs were composed of students chosen for their literary, artistic, or typing talents.

Thanks to the guidance of the sponsor, Miss Delp, the West Wind emerged superior to former years and a fine example for ensuing editions.

LIBRARY CLUB

The neat and orderly library here at West View has been maintained through the work of the efficient and capable Library Club.

At the beginning of the school term, the club met to elect its new officers for the ensuing year. To become a member, a girl had to be willing to give up some of her study halls and time before and after school to work in the library.

Checking books in and out, preparing new books, mending old ones, and decorating the bulletin boards were just a few of the many duties of the student librarians.

During the Christmas season, the girls let their artistic ability loose while decorating the library with a huge pine tree, thus adding to the Yuletide atmosphere around the school.

One of the major events in the Library Club's activities is the annual spring banquet. The club members were then rewarded for their diligent and unselfish work during the school year.

Directed by Miss Rea, the Library Club was and is one of the organizations which keeps the high school well organized and working efficiently.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

We here at West View feel that the F.H.A. was one of the most popular girls' organizations of the school. It met every Monday after school, with its meetings conducted by the very efficient president, Yvonne Flipovitz. With a very capable sponsor, Miss McCabe, and a group of ready, willing, and able hard-working girls, they had a very successful year.

The officers, chosen in the spring of 1956 by the members, are as follows: Yvonne Flipovitz, president; Nancy Dobler, vice president; Judy Heinsberg, secretary; and Ann Hockenberger, corresponding secretary. Among the other girls who helped the meetings run smoothly and successfully were the Historian, Warren Shreve—the Social Chairman Louise Fryer—and the Publicity Director, Jan Markus. No club would be complete or be able to prosper without the members. It took all of them together to have had such a successful year as they have completed.

The activities sponsored by this club proved fun for all. One of the most important activities that the members of the club participated in was the "Mother and Daughter Banquet" held in the spring. The other activities sponsored by F.H.A. were a "Shuffle Shop," another successful feature for the club, and a field trip to a local resort.

The F.H.A. also had projects which interested the girls in homemaking. With this list of activities sponsored by the organization, you can see that they have done a very commendable job of fulfilling the purposes of the club and have lived up to their motto, "Toward New Horizons."

SPEECH CLUB

This year, as in the past, the Speech Club has again opened its "door of opportunity" to all those who are interested in public speaking. There were many different types of speech in which one could participate. They were serious speaking, humorous and dramatic declamation, debate and extemporaneous speech.

The Speech Club is one of the oldest and most active organizations at West View. It has been gaining members year by year, and this year they had about forty-nine members. Because of the members' high enthusiasm and the tedious work they have done, they have had a very successful year. The purpose of the Speech Club is to create better speaking ability among its members. As far as the Speech Club's plans for the future are concerned, they hope to win state competition this spring.

The officers were elected by the members in the spring of 1956. They were John Supple, president; Tom Calhoun, vice president; Bonnie Mugnani, secretary; and Ted Newlin, treasurer. These officers, with Mr. Metz and Miss Morris, the capable sponsors, deserve recognition for the wonderful job they have done, for the goals they have set, and for the guidance they have given fellow members.

We here at West View feel that we really have a Speech Club of which we can be proud!

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Junior Achievement is a national organization sponsored by various businesses throughout the United States. The Pittsburgh chapter is one of the most active with companies such as United States Steel, Peoples First National Bank & Trust Company, Gulf Oil Corporation, Joseph Horne Company, The Aluminum Company of America, Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corporation, and Royal Typewriter acting as sponsors. Three representatives from each business are sent to Junior Achievement to act as the leaders and guides of the junior companies. The Achievers meet once a week in the Malony Building on the Boulevard of the Allies.

The students from grades nine through twelve are obligated to apply for a charter, issue a prospectus, and sell shares of stock in the junior company of their choice. They then manufacture a product and market it to individuals and companies. The J.A. companies are organized for profit, and sound management will ultimately result in a dividend for the stockholders. This program affords the high school student a real opportunity to acquire the practical experience of managing and operating a business in the American way. This is a concrete demonstration of the private enterprise system and democracy in action. It also provides an opportunity to meet with boys and girls from other district schools. Through the Achievers' Association dances, banquets, and other social events, many new friends are made. It is an inspiring experience and one which will be a treasured memory and of infinite value in later life.

SCIENCE ACHIEVEMENT ORGANIZATION

The S. A. O., which the members and other people who were acquainted with it call it, is an organization made up of students interested in science. It was organized mainly to help those interested in science obtain a firmer background than they could obtain during school time. At the meetings each week, the students helped each other with their projects and tried to find ways of bettering them. Mrs. Gibson, the sponsor, through her experience, helped and directed the members with their projects when necessary.

The Science Achievement Organization cooperated with the junior high school science classes in organizing a science fair presented in both the junior and senior high schools. It also awarded merits to the best projects. Later on in the year, if the members' projects were judged to be good enough, they were entered in the Buhl Planetarium Science Fair. It was the goal of each member to build a project worthy of a scholarship so that he might further his study of science.

While the S. A. O. is still in its infancy, having been organized just three years ago, it has been gaining much interest from West View High students and prospective members at Samuel Hamilton. Both boys and girls are being instilled with creative urge in attacking scientific problems and working with one another. As a club they are gaining valuable knowledge about "the world we live in."

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club is open to those boys and girls taking Latin II under the capable sponsorship of Miss Vance. This has been the ninth year in which our chapter of the Junior Classical League has operated in West View High School.

Officers of the Junior Classical League were Wilbert Foltz, Pontifex Maximus; Christie Collins, Quaestor; John Pittner and Marlene Schmidt, the two Consuls who call the meetings to order; Judy Sander, the Scriba who took and read the minutes at every meeting, and the Tribunes were Lynn Edwards and Wilbert Foltz. A number of other committee heads who planned the program for the year were elected to the Roman Senate.

The Latin Club and committees have done outstanding work this year, for at every public event everyone enjoyed himself thoroughly.

The Roman banquet topped the year's activities. Togas and sandals were the clothing worn. This banquet was fun for all, and showed the success of the Latin Club of 1956-57.

Miss Vance deserves many thanks for the wonderful job she did this year; for under her leadership, this year's Latin Club has truly shown that the work put into it was worthwhile.

STAGE CREW

The curtains open! To the audience they reveal another fine job accomplished by the stage crew. These hard working boys have spent many thankless hours in preparation for the numerous productions put on at West View High School.

Under the capable supervision of Mr. Vernon Metz and Bill Newlin, vice president of the school, the stage crew took care of the scenery and equipment, lighting effects, the microphone, setting up extra chairs, and cleaning up after each performance.

The fellows, besides setting the stage for each assembly, also put in extra hours working for the Junior and Senior Class Plays, the operetta, and the activities of Parent-Teacher Association and Parents' Musical Association.

The stage crew deserves a hand of applause for the splendid job they have done. It was certainly appreciated by all who attended the performances.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

On certain days after school you may have walked past the gym floor, and heard hearty shouts and cries that told you the G.A.A. girls were having a good game of basketball, volleyball, or any other popular indoor sport.

The Girls' Athletic Association, or G.A.A. as everyone calls it, is the girls' counterpart to all the sports the boys can participate in. The group met whenever the gym was available, usually once a week, or they used the field to play soft ball games. Any girl who was willing to spend some of her extra time and energy could become a member.

The goal of the G.A.A. members was to receive a red and gold chenille varsity letter. To receive this, a girl must have earned a total of one hundred points, getting them from attending the meetings and being on the winning team. It usually takes three years of regular attendance and consistent winning to earn this letter. Girls not able to earn the full hundred points were awarded a smaller letter if they had received forty points. The girl with the most points at the end of the year automatically becomes president the following year.

Besides winning awards, these feminine athletes learned teamwork, good sportsmanship, and the importance of physical fitness. Guided by their sponsor Miss Aiken, the G.A.A. members successfully reached these goals and at the same time had a lot of fun learning fair play and good fellowship.

GIRLS' BOWLING CLUB

Among the several clubs offered only to girls at West View is the Bowling Club, for beginners as well as for experts. Early in the year officers were elected. They included Arleen Gasull, president; Marilyn Hartung, vice president; Phyllis Ihrig, secretary; and Nancy Jones, treasurer.

As president, it was Arleen's job to take charge of all club activities. She was assisted in this capacity by the vice president. It was the job of the secretary to keep records of the individual teams' scores. The treasurer had the pleasant task of collecting all dues.

As they bowled together every other Thursday, the girls have worked to achieve the goal of good sportsmanship and fair play among the various teams. They each displayed their abilities and constantly strove to improve themselves.

We would like to congratulate Mrs. Ramming, the club's excellent sponsor, for the wonderful job she has done in organizing the club and working with it faithfully.

CHORUS

Beautiful choral music is one thing of which West View High School can be very proud. Every Friday morning during first period, harmonious strains could be heard floating from the auditorium. These choristers also attended a daily voice class to learn the music.

The chorus was really divided into three different groups: the Home Choir, the Traveling Choir, and the Chapel Choir. The Chapel Choir, composed of sixty-nine top ranking singers, could be heard at each assembly singing a hymn and the "Lord's Prayer" during devotions.

Many students worked for the betterment of the chorus. An efficient executive council was elected which organized all the activities of the choir. At the head of this council was the president, Ed Abel, aided by the other officers. Also, the accompanists and librarians worked very diligently.

Miss Conner is the capable director of the choral music department. Under her leadership, the chorus deserves to be champion another year.

THE ORCHESTRA

The West View High School orchestra was composed of the finest instrumentalists in our school. This group of musicians rehearsed daily to provide appropriate music for all activities in our school and community.

The orchestra's work began with hours of practice during the summer and at Music camp. When the week ended at Kon-O-Kwee, the concert foretold that the orchestra was to have a superlative year.

This prophecy was indeed fulfilled in the accomplishments and improvement during the year. The many performances which this group gave included music for the Junior and Senior Class plays, May Day, Commencement, two evening concerts, a Christmas assembly program at the senior high school, and also one for the entertainment of the Samuel Hamilton Junior High School students, and various exchange assemblies with other schools. Also planned was a concert trip to one of our neighboring colleges.

Many successful picnics and parties provided fun and relaxation.

The excellence which the orchestra maintained was due mainly to the work of its fine director, Mr. Caruso, and the Executive Council. The latter members are Kathie Sproat, president and concert-mistress; Karen Daniels, vice president; Kathy Woodworth, secretary; and Dave Zinsner, treasurer.

We salute the orchestra, an organization which truly exemplifies West View's motto, "Not to be served, but to serve."

SHUFFLE SHOP COMMITTEE

If, upon one of the choice sixteen Saturday nights, the question "What are you doing to-night?" was asked of a West View High School student, the answer invariably would be, "I'm going to Shuffle Shop, aren't you?"

Shuffle Shop was one of the main social events at West View High School. In the past years, it has been very successful, and this year has been among the most successful.

Behind the gay and glittery decorations, unusual lighting effects, and over-all cleverness of the Shuffle Shops, was the Shuffle Shop Committee. This committee, composed of approximately one hundred students, was the backbone of Shuffle Shop. The committee members spent many Saturday afternoons painting, stapling, rolling crepe paper, and pasting in order to make the decorations for that night's dance. The band risers were also set up at this time.

Frank Ligon, as secretary of Shuffle Shop, has done a very fine job of organizing our Shuffle Shop dances and is to be highly commended. Last spring, Frank picked the members of his committee and since then, they have met frequently to iron out the minor details.

Thanks a lot, Shuffle Shop Committee and Frank Ligon, for your time and efforts. Congratulations on a job well done.

SWING BAND

Like your music with a beat? Or maybe soft and dreamy? The Swing Band provided both this year, and really kept our toes a-tapping at Shuffle Shop. The 1956-57 crew of jazzmen numbered thirteen, a fact which didn't keep them from scoring an immediate success under the leadership of Bill Brown. His five sax artists were Bob Lillich, Jack Anthony, Dick Sherman, Dave Zech, and Alan Coulter, all of whom also played clarinet upon occasion. The trombonists, Bill Brown and Bob Komm, and the trumpet players, Chuck Groff, Don Mueller, and Harry Clark, completed the brass section. Dave Zinsner and his drums gave it a beat, and Tom Calhoun added the finishing touches on the piano. When Frank Ligons wasn't busy with Shuffle Shop duties, he added his bass viol to complete the ensemble. The most requested numbers at the bi-monthly Shuffle Shops were "Lullaby in Rhythm" and "720 in the Books." The group, of which five had been members the previous year, was composed of seven seniors, four juniors, and two sophomores. They met to rehearse weekly in Room 102. Although the organization is ten years old, the 1956-57 Swing Band was unprecedented.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's junior varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. Grant Hare, racked up one of the best records in West View history, winning eighteen out of their twenty games. Nothing could seem to stop these Indians as they went wild over their opponents. The outstanding game of the year was the last game when they scalped West Allegheny by a 70-32 score. The real sportsmanship of these boys really showed, though, when they lost to Bellevue by a 35-34 score and to Stowe by a 44-42 score!

Twelve of the boys on this year's team earned their letter. They are Rudy Raida, Bill Lundberg, Barrie Smith, Bob Soleau, Ole Olsen, Steve Jones, Bob Patrick, Jack Reed, Dean Briskey, Bill Kline, and the two managers, Jim Roche and Bill Martin. The top scorer for the season was Rudy Raida with 247 points . . . Bill Lundberg, Barrie Smith, and Bob Soleau followed closely behind Rudy with 179, 175, and 145 points respectively. Even with these outstanding records for these boys, it was only through the combined effort and skill of the smooth working team that they made such an outstanding record.

Congratulations, and may they win the championship in '59!

VARSITY BASKETBALL

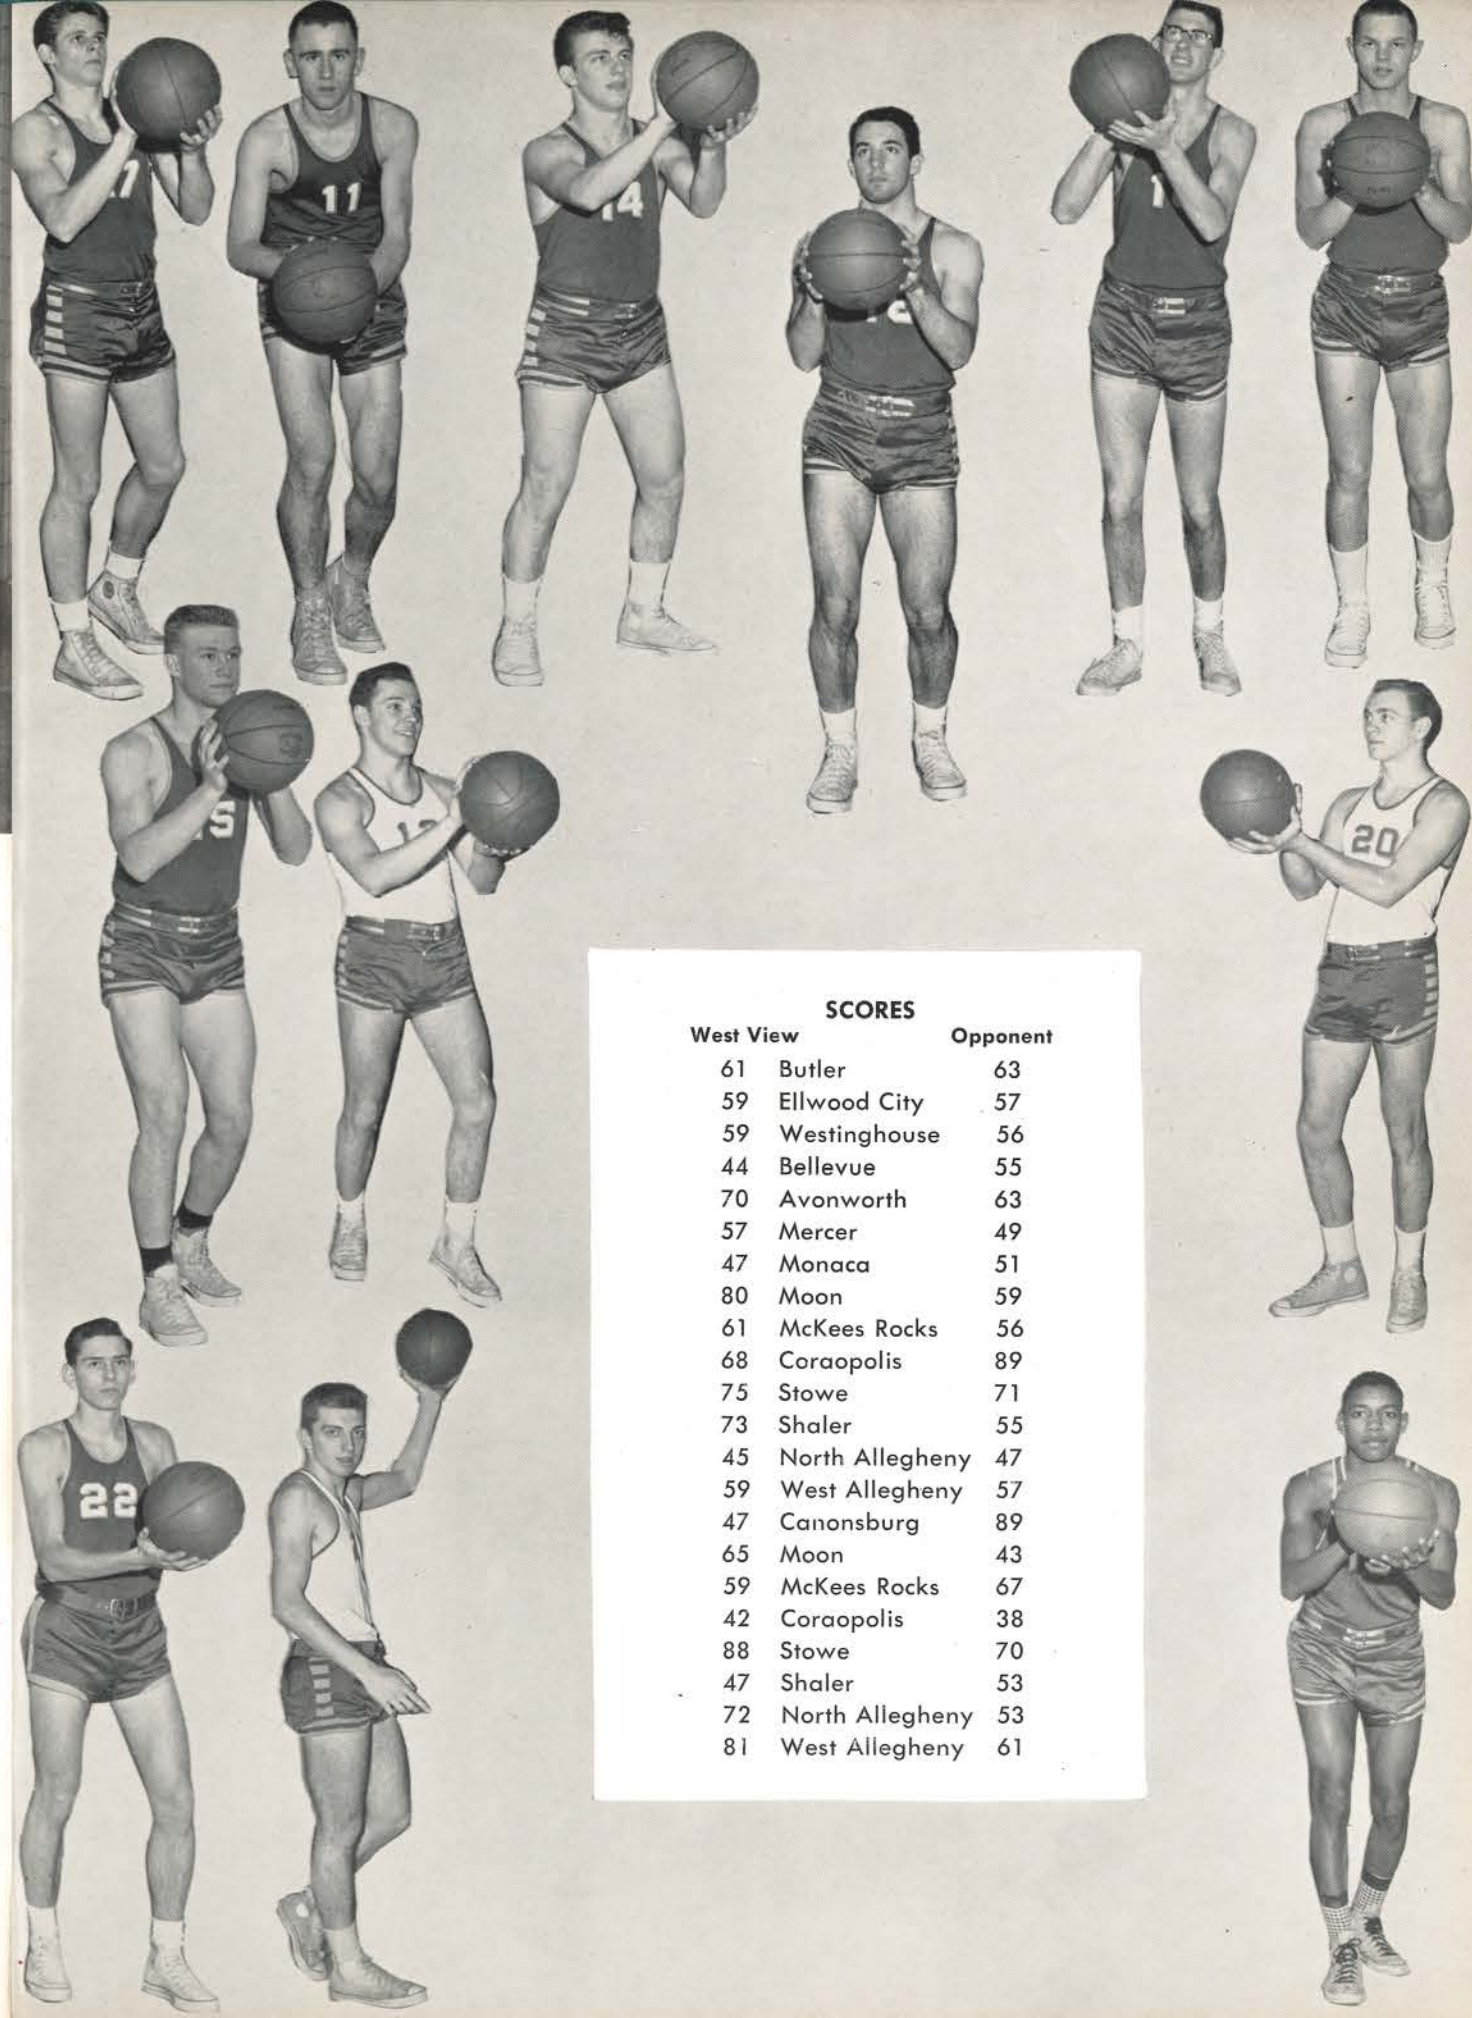

The 1956-57 basketball season turned out to be a bit more thrilling than perhaps Coach Mario Martorelli expected. The Indians showed excellent form all season and ended up with the identical record as last year; 14 wins and 8 defeats. After losing to Butler by a close 63-61, West View went on to take Ellwood City and Westinghouse in short order. The Indians copped the first game of the Mercer Tournament, but lost the final game to Monaca by a heartbreaking 51-47 score.

The Indians had a great start in league competition when they beat Moon, for the second straight year, by an 80-59 tally. The Indians lost another exhibition game during the year to Canonsburg, due to an outstanding Canonsburg player who scored 49 points! From then on the Indians really went to town with an occasional loss to North Allegheny or Coraopolis, who were the top teams in the section.

The West View team climaxed an excellent season with a racking 72-53 win over North Allegheny and an 81-61 victory over West Allegheny. This gave them a 10-4 season record in the W.P.I.A.L. Section IX records.

The starting quintet of this year's team was made up of five seniors, the only seniors on the team. Three of them—Dave Corley, Ed Abel, and Herb Wright—were returning let-terms who gave the quintet a nucleus of experience. Dave broke his last year's record by scoring 325 points and 72 per cent of all the foul shots he tried. Close behind Dave came Ed Abel, Herb Wright, Bern Buzalak, and Dick Harding, in that order, with 284, 261, 184, and 141 points respectively.

Congratulations to this year's team and may they never be forgotten in the history of West View.

WRESTLING

The West View wrestling team, under the guiding hand of its fourth year coach, Mr. John F. Weixel, faced the annual problem of a tough schedule and only a few holdovers from last year's team. Mr. Weixel worked wonders, however, in building a very excellent team which showed great spirit for West View and never gave up! The outstanding win of the season came when West View downed the usually rough Carnegie team by a 58-6 score. Other outstanding victories occurred when they downed West Allegheny twice, 30-17 and 42-14, Irwin by a 47-6 tally, and a close one with North Allegheny 26-25.

The team had several outstanding wrestlers this year. Among them were Bob Barnes in the 104 pound class; Hugh Cunningham, 120 pound wrestler; Chuck Reubi weighing in at 133; Art Schneider in the 138 pound class; Frank Ligons weighing in at 145; and Joe Waite, 154 pounds.

Regardless of their record, the team is to be congratulated for they always showed great determination in their matches and good spirit and sportsmanship.

BASEBALL - 1956

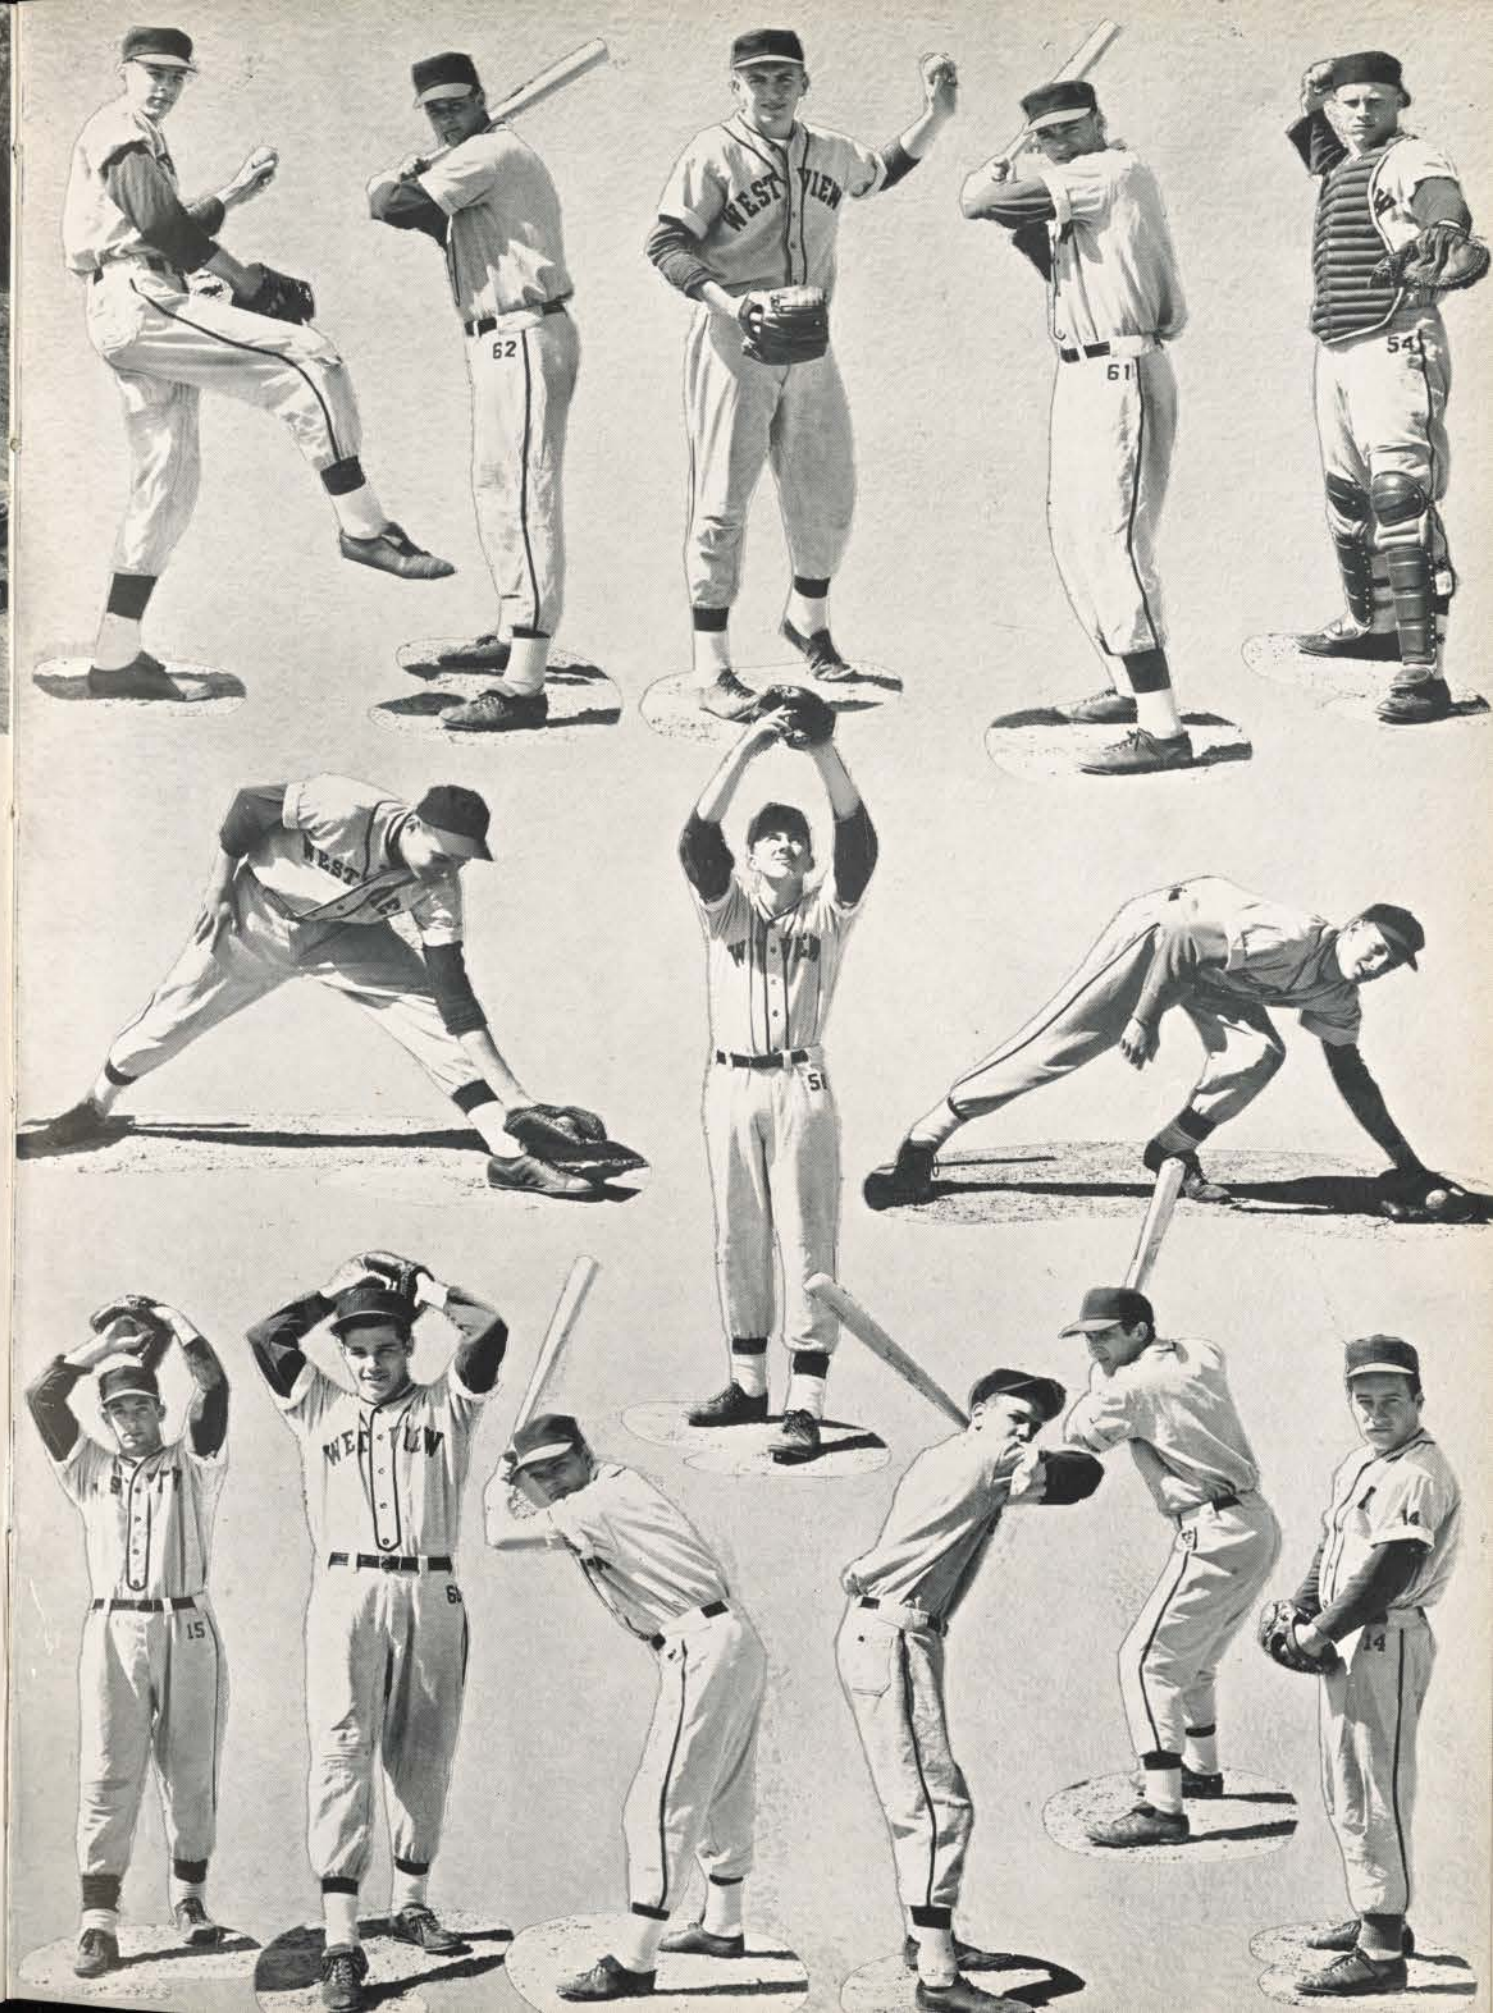

Coach Hartman had a very good start in building up his championship team for the 1956 season, because he had eight lettermen returning to the lineup from 1955's team. The Indians managed to bat close to 1,000 to take the Section 10 W.P.I.A.L. title, defeating West Deer, who, for the past two years, had always succeeded in snatching the section title right from the Indians' gloves. The Indians lost in the final playoffs, however, to Har-Brack.

The remaining regulars from 1955's team were Ed Abel, pitcher; Ed Luteran, first baseman; Phil Weber and Ted Newlin, second basemen; Herb Wright, third baseman; and John Leech, Charles Cato, and Andy Hruneni, outfielders. Most of the pitching assignments for the 1956 season were handled very "Abelly" by Ed Abel, who also managed to break some W.P.I.A.L. records. In a game with Etna, Ed pitched a no-hit game, and so did the Etna pitcher! It was the first time this had ever happened in the history of the W.P.I.A.L. circuit. Ed fanned seventeen batters and walked two in that game. Then, to break another record, Ed pitched another no-hit game in the same week, this time against West Deer. In that game, the Indians won by a score of 1-0.

West View lost only once in league play, when West Deer won by a score of 3-0. In all the rest of the games, the Indians were always triumphant, bringing home many more scalps for their collection. In the first game of the season they walloped Oliver by a score of 10-0. Another game was a close one with Shaler where the Indians won 7-6. The only other defeat came when West View lost to Har-Brack in the section playoffs, 3-0. By far, the 1956 team was one of the best in West View history and will always be remembered in W.P.I.A.L. scorebooks. May they get-tum many more scalps for West View in coming years.

GOLF - 1956

Once again spring arrived at West View, and along with it came some of the worst golf weather in history. Our Indians came through with flying colors, though, as they won all their matches in W.P.I.A.L. competition. Because of more bad weather and slow greens, West View lost in the section playoffs to Penn Township, 11½ to 4½. Under the able training of Mr. Nelson Tiffany, this was the first time in the last three years that West View went entirely undefeated in the regular W.P.I.A.L. matches.

With four boys remaining from last year's team, and Jim Lloyd returning from Shady Side Academy, Mr. Tiffany already had a solid nucleus for his winning team. The four boys remaining from last year's team were Frank Ransick, who held down the number one position and was also medalist for the year with a 79.5 average, Jim Duncan, Rod Kotchin, and Lee Seybert. Bruce Weissenstein, a junior, also played on the team. The team started their season by defeating North Allegheny at Shannopin Country Club, and from then on there was no stopping them. In exhibition play they lost to Shady Side, 5½ to 10½; but they defeated North Catholic, 13 to 3. The team average for the season was 86.3. Congratulations to Mr. Tiffany and his team of '56, which put itself to one of the best seasons in West View history.

SENIORS

CLASS HISTORY

The day—September 5, 1954; the place—West View High School; the occasion—first day of the 1954-55 school term; the state of affairs—248 confused sophomores wander aimlessly through the crowded halls.

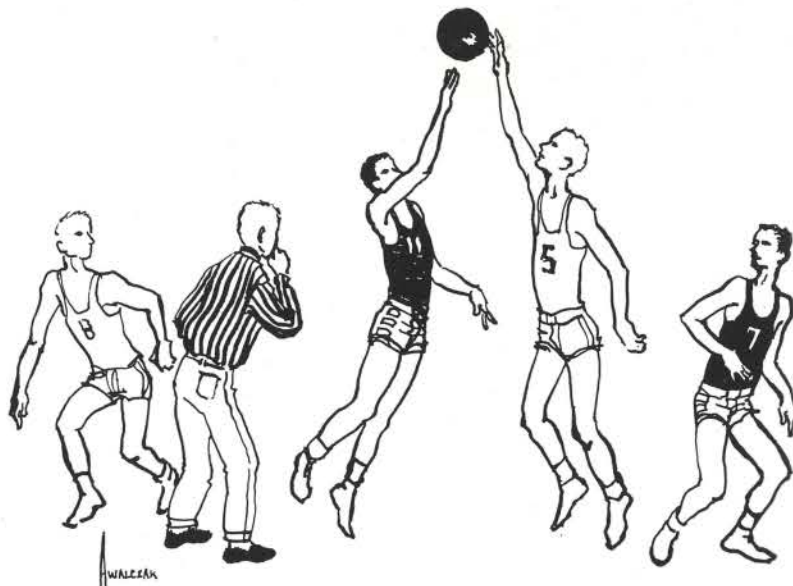

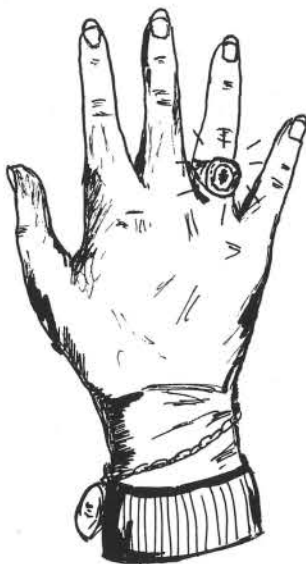

This was the beginning; the beginning of three momentous years that will live forever in the hearts of every member of the Class of 1957.

Who would have guessed that those once confused sophomores would someday step into their respective roles as citizens and leaders of West View High School, that they would someday stand upon that huge stage at the Syria Mosque and receive their diplomas as the Class of '57?

As they stand upon that stage, what happy memories go through their minds . . .

Remember, Class of '57, when you organized the Sophomore Executive Council? You chose such able leaders as Dave Corley, Lee Seybert, Judy Heinsberg, and Judy Briggs. You chose your class colors, blue and gold; and your class flower, the rose. You selected Mr. Weixel and Miss McCabe to be your faculty sponsors.

Will you ever forget your first sophomore activity, the Spring Fling? It was a record dance held on April 3 in the school gym. What excitement and gaiety flowed through West View High School that night.

CLASS OF 1957

As the year progressed, most of your class members were engaged in one or more outside activities. West View offered great opportunities for your class members to display their many individual talents and abilities.

The second sophomore activity, a picnic at Rose Grove in North Park, provided the perfect ending to a perfect sophomore year.

As you entered the 1955-56 school term, Class of '57, you felt more sophisticated; you could now hold your own among the other members of the school, for you were now juniors. The year progressed rapidly, leaving behind a host of happy and exciting memories. Take the first Junior Activity, for instance. It was perfectly named the "Mistletoe Ball." This semi-formal dance was held at the Colonial on December 28. The setting was romantic, the music soft, and the mood was friendly and warm.

Another unforgettable memory is the day you received your class rings. The cafeteria was in a confused state as the members of the class stampeded in. Now that you had your class rings, you were officially members of the Class of '57.

How could you ever forget the Junior Class Play, "Father Knows Best"? Ted Newlin, Carolyn Houston, Ann Hockenberger, and Pam Mugnani were among the talented cast.

Probably the biggest day in your lives as juniors of West View, however, was the Junior Prom. It was held on Friday, April 13, at West View Danceland. The music was provided by Lee Kelton and his fine orchestra.

This was truly a Cinderella's Ball. The after-prom party included such well-known celebrities as Otis Williams, who sang many of the song hits of the time. Many members of the class went on all-day picnics the next day. As might be expected, these individuals spent all day Sunday catching up on their much-needed sleep.

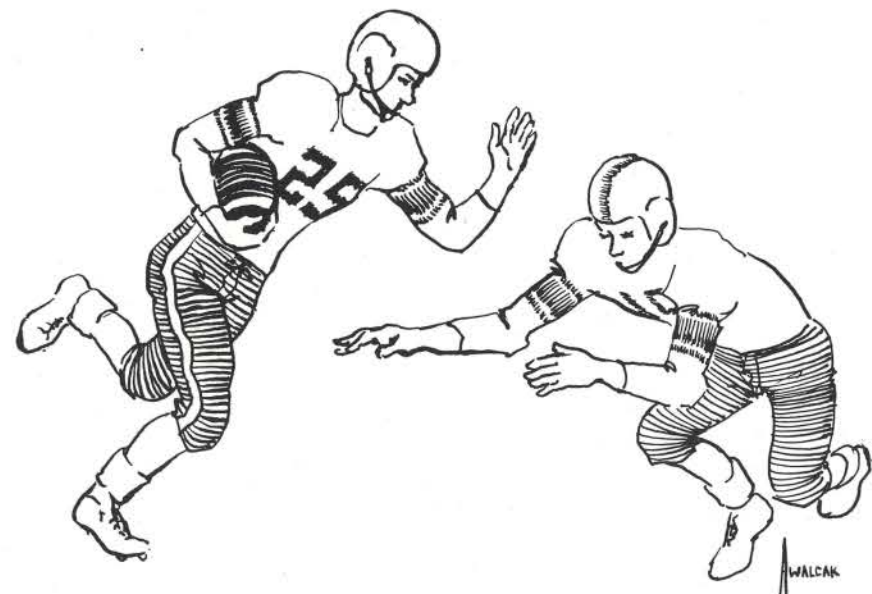

Now, let's look back upon what is probably the most important year of your high school life, your senior year.

You elected Rod Kotchin, one of your outstanding class members, to represent you as president of the Student Council. Your senior class officers were as follows:

President	Lee Seybert
Vice President	Dave Corley
Secretary	Pam Mugnani
Treasurer	Ed Luteran
Corresponding Secretary	Arlene Gasull

These people were responsible for the planning of your two senior activities, the Senior Sock Hop and the Senior Dinner Dance.

Who can list all the wonderful happenings of your senior year? They were impressive and numerous. The Senior Breakfast, for instance, or the Senior Class Play, the wonderful times at Shuffle Shop, or at the football games—all these things, Class of '57, are now but memories. But, they will never fade. They will be with you always. They will follow you into the future. For this—was the CLASS OF 1957.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Father Knows Best"

A rollicking comedy, "Father Knows Best" was presented by the Junior Class for its annual play. Mr. Anderson, played by Ted Newlin, believed that his family should stay at home. Complying with his wishes, Bud had his basketball team in for practice, Mrs. Anderson had her women's club, and little Kathy had her best girl friend in. Amid the uproar, Mr. Anderson tried to conduct business with a prospective client. Only Betty succeeded in leaving the house with the client's son. Unaware of the relationship between Betty's date and his client, Mr. Anderson insulted the boy. Throughout the difficult incidents that followed, Mrs. Anderson, played by Carolyn Houston, aided her husband in passing the crisis. When everyone got together and discussed their grievances sensibly, things took a change for the better. Mr. Anderson got his client and Betty Anderson got her boyfriend.

Anybody who was fortunate enough to see this play will agree that the cast and director should be congratulated on a fine job, as the applause of the enthusiastic audience implied.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Birds and the Boys"

A uniquely titled production, "The Birds and the Boys," a lively, warm-hearted, and hilarious play, was given on March 26, 27, 1957, as the Senior Class Play.

This novel play is mainly concerned with a somewhat scatterbrained young woman named Cricket, who has an extraordinary interest in our feathered friends as well as an unusual trust in the human race. Cricket, portrayed by Jo Bender, through no fault of her husband, Roy Anderson, is quite successful in causing quite a stir throughout their newly acquired community, which contains a boys' reformatory.

Two very uneducated boys, Ed Luteran and Bill Brown from the "academy," as Cricket calls it, become somewhat friendly with Cricket's teenage neighbor, Hebbie Barker, played by Ann Hockenberger. Naturally the very prissy Mrs. Barker disapproves.

The general hilarity of the situation is further promoted by Hebbie's small sister, Beany, played by Judy Doehla. The resulting catastrophe could only be completed by the final success of Cricket in proving that a general outlook of trust is always rewarded.

The excellent cast, beautiful scenery, and fine direction by Mr. Craig are the most determining factors contributing to the outstanding success of "The Birds and the Boys."

JUNIOR PROM

Even a casual passer-by could have seen that that night was special. It was April 19, 1956, the evening of our Junior Prom.

Girls in rustling gowns swept out of cars with their escorts, handsome in white dinner jackets or suits. Hundreds of couples circled beneath Danceland's glittering lights as Lee Kelton's band played soft dreamy music. The music didn't last long enough for most of us, however, because it seemed that the first notes had just begun to fill the room when, suddenly, it was one o'clock and the Prom ended with the playing of the Alma Mater.

For the greater part, our evening was only beginning. The After Prom Party started with a bang as Otis Williams and his Charms took over the floor. Later the dancing continued until five a.m., when all those who could keep their eyes open helped themselves to breakfast on the premises. As the first rays of the sun came up, several hundred tired people made their way home with memories which will always be cherished of our Junior Prom.

Prom goers line up for lunch at midnight.

SENIOR ACTIVITY

Ranking high among the memories of the senior class is their Sock Hop which was held on Saturday, November 10, 1956, at the Berkeley Hills Fire Hall. The hall was beautifully decorated with blue and white crepe paper, the class colors. And what a variety of socks could be seen! They ranged from crew socks to knee socks, including the bright argyles. The crowd ate their refreshments of barbecues, hot dogs, pretzels, potato chips, orange and lemon drink, and ice cream by candlelight, adding a great deal of atmosphere to the evening. Dreamy music provided by Greg Porter's high-fi and gay laughter were the finishing touches to making the activity an enjoyable one for all who attended.

MAY QUEEN

May Day, the exciting and breath-taking day when all prepare to witness the crowning of the 1957 Queen of the May! Tension has been mounting in the halls of West View ever since seven senior girls were nominated in January. Many remarks and speculations were made about the lovely girls whose pictures appeared on the bulletin board in the hall. When the final votes were tabulated, all anxiously awaited the results. From the Three Graces, a Queen would be chosen.

At last the evening of May 1, 1957, finally arrived. Jesters, trumpeters, and court dancers graced the stage, creating a beautiful atmosphere for their queen. The audience marveled as the four charming attendants walked to the stage. Eyes of admiration followed Mary Alyce Seethaler, Lady-in-Waiting, and Judy Heinsberg, Maid of Honor, as they made their way down the aisle, taking their places on either side of the Queen's throne. As the doors were opened for the last time, the audience broke into thundering applause, thus paying tribute to Her Majesty Judy Briggs, May Queen of 1957. After retiring queen Kay Nelson pronounced the royal decree, a gala program was presented in the Queen's honor.

We, the class of 1957 bow to our Queen. May she have a successful reign during the coming year.

SENIOR EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

We, the Class of 1957, can look back at our three years at West View with a feeling of accomplishment.

Our sophomore year began with a class meeting in the auditorium. At this meeting, we elected Dave Corley as our president; Lee Seybert, vice president; Judy Heinsberg, secretary; and Judy Briggs, treasurer. The rose was chosen as our flower and blue and gold were chosen as class colors. As sponsors, we elected Miss McCabe and Mr. Weixel. The sponsors, officers, and council worked diligently to collect dues, plan activities, and sponsor the class Shuffle Shop, Winter Wonderland.

At the beginning of our junior year, we elected Lee Seybert as president; Ted Newlin, vice president; Judy Heinsberg, secretary; Phyllis Ihrig, corresponding secretary; and Ed Luteran, treasurer. The duties of this year's council and officers were to collect dues, plan activities, make the necessary arrangements for the Junior Class Play and Junior Prom, and distribute class rings, which we were fortunate to receive in December.

Our last and most important year was very capably led by Lee Seybert, president; Dave Corley, vice president; Arlene Gasull, corresponding secretary; Pam Mugnani, secretary; and Ed Luteran, treasurer. The executive council strove to make our senior year the very best. They carried out their duties of collecting dues, and making arrangements for the Senior Class Play, the Senior Dinner Dance, and Commencement capably.

The Class of 1957 wishes to express its appreciation to their sponsors, officers, and executive council for a job well done.

1957 WESTVIAN STAFF

The Westvian staff members of 1957 contributed long hours of their free time to achieve a yearbook of which they could be proud. The first big project of the year was securing patrons to help finance our book. Everyone was given his share in selling ads, and at the end of the campaign the sales were tallied. Afterwards came the difficult task of compiling the yearbook. There was the scheduling for photographs of the various activities, home-rooms, the different classes, and the sports groups. In the summer the senior pictures were scheduled. Next came the write-ups. The activities staff worked hard on writing up the various clubs, while the literary staff put on their thinking caps and tackled the senior write-ups. The features staff did a fine job of writing up May Day, the Junior Prom and the other many wonderful events this year. The sports staff is responsible for all the write-ups concerning our various school sports. Taking charge of program selling during football season and collecting money from the patron campaign are among the duties of the business staff. The typing staff spent endless hours typing up the many articles. The clever sketches and unique drawings by the art staff put the finishing touches on the Westvian and added to the attractiveness of the yearbook.

To climax the year, a picnic was held at North Park in the spring. Through the wonderful leadership of our sponsors Mr. Puchta and Mr. Herman, the members of the yearbook worked hard in producing the Westvian but enjoyed a wonderful experience.
